New York City Deluged by Rain as 'Connie' Moves Up Coast

Trees, Power Lines Topple In High Wind

Nearly Foot of Water Falls in Metropolitan Area; Streets Deserted

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York metropolitan area wallowed today in almost a foot of rain whipped by 57 mile an hour winds on the fringe of "Hurricane Connie."

100,000 Without Power

Thousands of basements were flooded.

Approximately nine inches of rain has fallen since the downpour began at 8 p.m. Thursday. It still was pelting down this morning.

Manhattan's normally busy streets were virtually deserted.

On Long Island, where drought-stricken farmers were praying for rain a few days ago, the torrents washed away topsoil and blocked harvesting operations.

Wires Knocked Down

Toppled trees in Rockland County knocked down electric wires. This in turn deadened radios in thousands of rural homes and prevented the occupants from getting storm forecasts. High winds were buffeting the county.

By 8 a.m., the rainfall in New York City totalled 11.02 inches since Aug. 1, or more than ever fell here in an entire month of August. The previous record was 10.42 inches, set in 1905.

The torrential rains, driven by gusty winds, flooded thousands of homes, blocked roads and caved in pavements.

While busy coping with its flood problems Friday, the area was put on a hurricane alert a second time. An early midweek alert had been canceled Thursday when the erratic Connie appeared likely to miss this section or blow out before she got here.

To Pass West of City

A Weather Bureau advisory today predicted the big windstorm will pass the city on the west, sideswiping it with winds ranging between 45 and 55 miles an hour sometime this afternoon. Gusts up to 65 miles an hour were predicted.

The Weather Bureau warned that rain-softened ground greatly increased the danger from uprooted and falling trees should heavier winds strike.

Civil Defense officials ordered 60,000 volunteers to stand by for

Here's a Switch—Girl Named After Hurricane

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—They've been naming hurricanes after girls for years, but the Rev. and Mrs. Swan Bush pulled a switch today. They named a girl after hurricanes.

Buses Due To Return To Marion on Aug. 22

Service Will Be Operated By Local Man

Walter Christian Plans To Lease Four Vehicles From Springfield Firm

Bus service will return to Marion Aug. 22, Mayor Harold Robinson said this morning.

The mayor said an agreement had been worked out with Walter Christian of 260 Latourette St., who will operate the buses under terms of the lease offered to the city when the Springfield City Lines quit operations here July 31.

Hopes To Cut Expenses

Christian has been a mechanic for the last three bus companies operating on Marion streets.

Robinson said Christian had pointed out several ways in which he could cut expenses and the mayor said his plan sounded feasible.

Christian indicated he would do all his own mechanical work on the buses as one of the main ways for cutting costs. He will also handle the supervisory work and bookkeeping.

Christian is to see officials of the Springfield company in the next few days to sign a lease.

He indicated that his first operation would consist of three buses operating on east-west and north-south routes.

The east-west service would be on a half-hour schedule, while the north-south runs would be made on an hourly schedule. He plans to start the service Aug. 22.

The mayor said he had contacted members of City Council and they had expressed satisfaction with Christian's plan.

Extra School Service

Christian assured the mayor that extra service would be available during the school year to handle students going to and from classes.

The mayor said Christian had made all necessary arrangements for insurance for his vehicles and that all details of operation had been worked out satisfactorily.

Christian said he would lease four buses from the Springfield lines under the same terms as Springfield offered the city — $100 a month for each bus. One will serve as a spare.

City Council studied the proposal of the Springfield line with a view to city operation of the buses, but turned it down.

Springfield quit operations here after the company reported it had lost $4,500 in a 15-month operating period. It offered to lease the buses to the city or sell them outright at a cost of $11,000.

Lack of patronage was blamed by the former company when it made its move from the city.

Called 'Good Plan'

Mayor Robinson said he had checked with bus company officials in Springfield and they are willing to make the same lease terms available to Christian.

The mayor was pleased with the plans of Christian and said he

Soviet Union To Cut Down Size of Army

Will Trim Strength By 640,000 Men To 'Ease World Tension'

MOSCOW (AP)—Citing a "certain reduction of tension in international relations," the Soviet Union said today it will cut its armed forces by 640,000 men by Dec. 15.

The official Soviet News Agency Tass said the government decided on a reduction as a further step to lessen international tension and establish confidence among nations.

Total on Arms Not Disclosed

The actual strength of Russia's armed forces has never been disclosed officially. A British spokesman in London today estimated the total armed forces at 4,750,000 men. He listed the strength as: Army, 3,200,000; Air Force, 800,000; Navy, 750,000).

The Soviet announcement said:

"Recent developments, in particular the results of the Geneva conference, show that a certain relaxation of international tension has been achieved.

"With a view to promoting the relaxation of international tension and establishing confidence among the nations, the Soviet government has decided to reduce the armed forces of the Soviet Union by 640,000 men by 15th December, 1955."

Russia announced two weeks ago its armed forces would be cut by 44,000 men—that number of troops being withdrawn from Austria under the terms of the Austrian independence treaty. Russia said the Soviet troops would be out of Austria by Oct. 1, about a month ahead of the treaty withdrawal deadline.

Proposed Cut at Geneva

At the Big Four summit conference in Geneva, the Soviets proposed that the United States, Britain, France, and Russia all cut their armed forces by the number of troops to be withdrawn from Austria.

The United States has been making a progressive cut in its armed forces since a peak of 3,685,054 was reached in April, 1952, during the Korean War. The total on June 30, 1955, was 2,936,003. The goal under the administration's program for a cutback is 2,850,000 by June 30, 1956.

A North Atlantic Treaty Organization report last Jan. 1, estimated the Soviet Union and its Eastern European satellites had more than six million men under arms.

Belgium To Get Some

U.S. Reported Set To Export A-Fuel

GENEVA (AP)—The United States was reported today to have decided to export to certain countries atomic fuel of a grade sufficient to operate atomic power stations.

This information came from a highly qualified source who said Belgium probably would be the first nation to get such fuel.

Hasn't Shipped Any Yet

Up to now the United States has not shipped any atomic fuel abroad but it had agreed to supply 27 countries with enough 20 per cent enriched uranium to operate one research reactor.

Leading atomic scientists — including Dr. H. J. Bhabha of India, president of the current atomic conference—say atomic fuel rich enough to operate a power station is also of possible weapon grade.

The 20 per cent enriched fuel, however, is considered usable only for research and creation of radio isotopes.

It could not be learned to which other countries besides Belgium the richer, power grade fuel would be sent, but they apparently will be only those which have closest ties of friendship with the United States.

Even then, it was learned, the United States will insist on having inspection rights to make sure the fuel is being used only to operate power stations.

None for Red Nations

Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, made it clear at a news conference earlier this week the United States would not send any reactors or atomic fuel to any Iron Curtain nation.

The decision of the United States to export atomic fuel of power grade is understood to be based primarily on the feeling it would be fairly simple to detect any misuse of the fuel.

None of the fuel being supplied to foreign countries is being sold outright, the informant said, it is merely being leased. Thus, in the event of any questionable use, the supply could be quickly withdrawn.

It was understood that Belgium would be the first to get power grade fuel because of the important role that country has played in the development of the atomic power program in the United States.

As far back as the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration when the United States had only the barest uranium resources, it was said that Belgium contributed generous supplies.

For this reason, Belgium was promised the most favorable treatment when and if atomic resources reached the point when they could be sent to other countries.

Spy Deported To Native Land

Nazi Had Sneaked Into U.S. From Submarine

WASHINGTON (AP)—Erich Gimpel, one of two Nazi spies who sneaked into this country from a German submarine during World War II, was bound for his native Germany today.

The Justice Department announced Friday that Gimpel, now 46, was deported under proceedings that had begun in April, 1947.

The order said that Gimpel was deportable because "at the time of his entry, he was an immigrant not in possession of valid entry papers." He was taken from the Federal Prison at Atlanta, Ga., to New York City and placed aboard the S.S. Italia, which sailed Friday.

His companion, William Colepaugh, 37, who was born in the United States, is in Federal Prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Colepaugh and Gimpel were convicted of espionage after FBI agents arrested them in New York in December, 1944. That was one month after they had landed on the Maine coast by rubber boat launched from a German submarine. When caught, they had spent $3,425 of their original $60,000, some of it for materials with which to build a short wave radio transmitter which they planned to use for sending information to Germany.

Both were given death sentences, but the White House commuted them to life imprisonment. Colepaugh's sentence later was reduced to 30 years.

Battleship King George Gets Stuck Off Scotland

ROSENEATH POINT, Scotland (AP) — Britain's 45,000-ton battleship King George—famed World War II fighter—went aground today while being towed into the Gare Loch.

The big warship stuck fast only 30 yards from the beach.

Seven tugs failed to budge her after three hours pulling and pushing.

Reds Return Oil Fields, Farm Land to Austrians

VIENNA (AP) — Soviet Russia today handed back to Austria the rich Zistersdorf oil fields, 28 oil refineries and 319 factories which it has held since the end of World War II.

The Soviets also turned back 234,000 acres of farm land they had seized. They took all these properties under the 1945 Potsdam agreement by claiming they were "German assets."

When the handover took place, Austria again became sole master of its economy and the biggest European oil producer this side of the iron curtain.

Rhee Lifts His Ultimatum on Neutral Team

Says U.S. Has Pledged To Work for Peaceful Withdrawal of Group

SEOUL (AP) —President Syngman Rhee tonight lifted the midnight deadline of his ultimatum demand for neutral nations truce supervisors to get out of Korea. He advised against violent demonstrations.

Rhee said he acted on assurance from Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson that the U. S. government "will make efforts soon" to seek peaceful withdrawal of the four-nation truce commission.

He said Robertson gave the assurance in a letter.

"Our people at this time should be patient about everything," Rhee said, in a statement.

"We might be misunderstood if the demonstrations continued until all the members of the neutral nations supervisory commission leave Korea."

Rhee's statement, broadcast in Korea two hours before the midnight deadline, was released by the government office of public information.

They Can't Crack Puzzle

Governors Put Highway Solution Up to Congress

CHICAGO (AP)—The annual Governors' Conference has shunted to Congress the job of finding a way to finance a vast new highway building program it called "vital to the nation's economy and defense."

Entertained at the annual All-Star football game Friday night, the governors scattered to their states after electing Washington's Republican Gov. Arthur B. Langlie as chairman and picking Atlantic City, N. J. as the site for next year's session.

Endorse President's Aims

In a windup business meeting the governors approved a resolution endorsing the "objectives" of President Eisenhower's super highway building program.

But on the suggestion of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, they cut out of the resolution words that might have been interpreted as approving Eisenhower's proposal of financing this long range program.

The governors also avoided mention of possible tax increases to finance such a program, but they said the Federal Government ought to put back into roads "far more" than the present 875 million dollars allotted to that purpose out of 2½ billions raised by U.S. levies on highway users.

Congress expects to come to grips with the highway problem early in the next session, beginning in January. It has rejected Eisenhower's bond financing plan, but also has shelved an alternative bill which would increase gasoline and other taxes to pay for the new roads.

The governor's choice of Langlie to succeed Democratic Gov. Robert F. Kennon of Louisiana was in keeping with their tradition of alternating between Republican and Democratic chairmen.

Staunch Ike Supporter

Langlie, a 55-year-old third termer and a staunch Eisenhower supporter, may be on the firing line in next year's election. He has been urged by Republican national party officials to run for the Senate against Democratic Sen. Warren Magnuson. He has said, however, he wouldn't be interested in such a race until it is certain that Eisenhower will seek reelection.

Almost every Republican governor who attended the 47th annual conference here expressed the opinion that Eisenhower would run again and be re-elected.

Democrats were divided, with indications that a majority would back Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 nominee, who has said he will announce his plans in November. Stevenson's aides have no doubt he will run again.

Harriman continued his public support of Stevenson but showed no annoyance when some of his colleagues suggested that he himself might make a good nominee. Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas said he would vote for "practically anybody," including a Republican, rather than back Stevenson.

But Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee, a Stevenson rooter, said he hadn't found any signs of a possible Democratic rebellion against Stevenson in the south.

Chinese Claim Torture Story Is Propaganda

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping's People's Daily today termed "vicious propaganda" Col. John Knox Arnold's story of being mentally and physically tortured by Chinese Communists trying to force a confession.

Arnold, 42, of Silver Spring, Md., was one of 11 airmen released by the Chinese Aug. 4 at the Hong Kong border.

The People's Daily editorial, quoted by Peiping radio in a broadcast heard here, was the first Chinese Red public comment on Arnolds' story of torture. He related it to a press conference at Tokyo last Sunday.

The colonel, gaunt and strained, left Travis AFB in California last night on the last lap of the trip to his home in Montgomery, Ala.

At the news conference, Arnold told of being beaten, kicked, placed in pain-inflicting manacles, and being "forced to stand until you screamed."

13 Rescued, 4 Missing

Ancient Ship Broken Up By Hurricane; Ten Dead

NORTH BEACH, Md. (AP)—An ancient schooner off on a pleasure cruise was pounded to pieces in storm-lashed Chesapeake Bay, leaving 10 dead and 4 missing today.

Thirteen others were dramatically rescued Friday by firemen, police, National Guardsmen and civilian volunteers who poured into this beach resort 30 miles southeast of Washington, D. C.

Volunteers Save Six

Six of the 13 were rescued by two men who went down to the beach "to see if we could lend a hand" and stayed to ferry them two at a time in a 14-foot skiff through waves as high as a man.

There was nothing left of the boat, the Levin J. Marvel out of Annapolis, Md., except a fragment of her cabin and debris which littered the spongy sand.

"I didn't see a bit of wreckage bigger than a door," said one police officer. "She must have taken a terrific beating."

The 10 dead included 6 men, 3 women and a 9-year-old girl. Most of them were from New York.

The 13 survivors included John Mechling, 38-year-old skipper of the Marvel, and his three crewmen, all of Annapolis. One of them, Stephen Morton, a 17-year-old high school senior, gave reporters a graphic account of the tragedy.

He said the 64-year-old Marvel, a 128-foot three-masted barge-like vessel called a ram, left the Chesapeake's eastern shore Thursday. She had been out since Monday on a tour of historic ports in the bay.

Everything Went Wrong

The idea, he said, was to reach Annapolis on the western side before Hurricane Connie struck. But a lot of things went wrong—winds, the water pump, the auxiliary motor.

"The water started coming over the deck ... quicker than we could pump it out," he said, and then: "A big wave came along and laid the boat on its side."

With the Marvel breaking up fast off North Beach, Morton and five others, all lashed together, made it to a duck blind a mile downwind and 200 yards offshore.

Spotted Through Rain

It was there they were spotted through the wind-driven rain by the two men who had come to help —William McWilliams, 28-year-old North Beach fireman, and George Kellum, 31-year-old construction worker.

The two said they made three trips to the blind in a 14-foot outboard motor boat.

It was not the first time the Marvel had been in trouble. Twice last summer she rubbed bottom, in July when she sprang a leak

World-Renowned Author Thomas Mann Dies at 80

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Thomas Mann, 80, famed German-born author whose books were burned by the thousands in Hitler's Reich, died Friday night following a heart attack.

Mann, winner of the 1929 Nobel Prize for literature, left Germany shortly after Hitler came to power. He went to the United States before World War II and became an American citizen in 1944.

He had been active until last month when he was stricken with phlebitis, a vein inflammation, while vacationing in Holland. His physician said a "general condition of weakness" caused his death after the heart attack.

Mann came back to Europe in 1953 after 15 years in the United States. He said he had "the urgent desire to re-establish and cultivate

Marital Tangle Unsolved

Schmidt Meets His Son, Has Long Talk With Wife

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP)—Airman Daniel C. Schmidt, disturbed and irritated from a long day of homecoming, met his son for the first time and held a lengthy but inconclusive conference with his remarried wife today.

The meeting was held in private and the 22-year-old flier, a prisoner of the Chinese Communists 32 months, said he would have three or four more meetings with his auburn-haired wife before making any decision on his marriage.

Thought Him Dead

The wife, Una, says she married logger Alford Fine, 21, last September in the belief Schmidt had been killed when he and 10 other crewmen bailed out of a B29 over North Korea.

Schmidt's 2½-year-old son, Danny Jr., was brought to the law office of Harold Berliner, Una's attorney, for the reunion. After a three-hour meeting, with his wife, Schmidt told reporters he had nothing to say now. He said he would remain in this high Sierra community until "we get this thing worked out." And as he had done before when he landed Friday at Travis Air Force base near San Francisco, Schmidt begged for privacy.

Go Back to Hideout

"Quit following us around," he asked television and newsreel cameramen clustered in front of Berliner's office as he left.

The slightly built airman, married only five weeks before he went overseas, was dressed in a natty gray sportscoat and blue slacks.

Minimum Pay Bill and Others Signed by Ike

New Wage Floor Is $1; Free Polio Vaccine, Pension Hike Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed laws providing a new $1 an hour minimum wage and free polio vaccine, and neared the end of the hundreds of bills Congress sent to him.

Only three bills were left today on which action was pending. These concerned the Washington transit strike, land for a Colorado River project and continued stockpiling of some domestic minerals. Aides said the President wanted more information on them.

Affects 24 Million

The new minimum wage, effective next March 1, applies to 24-million workers covered by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act. It is expected to mean wage increases for about 2,100,000 employes, mostly in the South. The old minimum was 75 cents an hour. Eisenhower had recommended a 90-cent minimum. Union labor leaders wanted $1.25.

The polio bill provides 30 million dollars to be allocated to the states to provide free polio vaccine under state programs. Allocations will be made on the basis of the state's population under 20 years of age and per capita income. The money will be available until next February. This gives Congress, convening next January, a chance to see if anything further should be done.

Other Bills

Other bills signed Friday include those that:

Increase pension payments for an estimated 82,000 widows of railroad employes, raising their monthly maximum payment of $40 to an estimated $54.30, starting next January, with an increase to $51.80 immediately, to make their payments equal to those from social security.

More than double the amount of American farm surpluses the government may sell for foreign currencies from 700 million dollars to 1½ billion.

Continue federal aid to school districts suffering from overcrowded classrooms as a result of federal activity.

The President vetoed a bill which would have provided additional retirement benefits under the Civil Service system to federal employes who have been employed by states on federal-state programs in five types of agricultural work and in programs of vocational education. Eisenhower said he vetoed it because he will ask the next session of Congress to bring federal employes under the social security system.

U.S. and Red China Still Disagree on Repatriation

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. and Red Chinese envoys met for an hour and 45 minutes today without reaching agreement on liberating 41 Americans held in China.

They suspended their secret talks until Tuesday. Official spokesmen of both sides announced only that the issue of repatriation of civilians would be taken up at the next session here.

An official U.S. spokesman denied a New Delhi report that the U.S. had agreed in principle to allow India to act as a third party on possible repatriation on Chinese students in the United States.

The check included $184 netted by the club members in a Four Leaf Clover tag day held recently by the club members at Morral and in Marion. The remainder was taken from the club treasury. The clovers were made by the club members.

Following the ceremonies the club members were taken on a tour of the home.

Storm

emergency service and rescue work if needed.

Shortly after midnight the Holland-America liner Nieuw Amsterdam steamed into New York harbor ten hours ahead of schedule to beat the hurricane. She carried 1,249 passengers.

Until the hurricane's gale force winds hit, however, the main problem was rain. From the time the storm started at 8 p.m. Thursday until early this morning, rainfall was measured at 7.93 inches.

While New York wallowed in water, Connie, now more of a gale than a hurricane, advanced steadily northward up Chesapeake Bay and appeared on the verge of blowing herself out.

The Washington Weather Bureau's 5 a.m. EST advisory said all hurricane warnings have been lowered from the Delaware Breakwater north to Eastport, Me., but storm warnings remained in sight. The bureau said storm warnings on Delaware Bay and the upper Chesapeake would be lowered later in the morning.

But Connie had already contributed directly or indirectly to 26 known deaths, and damage was in the millions of dollars. Four other persons were missing and presumed dead.

10 on Ship Killed

Ironically, she became more gentle as she neared the scene of her worst havoc, off Calvert County Maryland. There, the sailing schooner Levin J. Marvel capsized with 27 persons aboard in the heavy seas that preceded Connie's arrival.

Ten died and four more were missing and presumed dead.

At Philadelphia, the latest word from the U.S. Weather Bureau was that the center of the storm should pass between Harrisburg and Philadelphia sometime between 9 a.m. (EST) and noon.

At Ocean City, Md., the weakening storm was still kicking up waves with 30 miles per hour winds but the coast guard officer in charge said tides rose only about 2½ feet above normal.

In New Jersey, winds up to 60 miles an hour lashed the coast early this morning, and residents were evacuated from some exposed areas. Even before the storm arrived, Connie accounted for five accidental deaths in the state, and two young fishermen were missing off Little Egg Inlet.

The tropical blow, charged with damage in the millions and complicity in 20 deaths, wore itself down in its assault on coastal North Carolina. With winds well below its former 135-mile peak, the storm was scarcely more than an overgrown gale when it passed up Virginia's eastern shore last night. The eye began disintegrating into a number of small squalls and Connie, as a hurricane, appeared for a short while to be through. But winds which had diminished to a 58 miles per hour maximum went to 80 and she regained hurricane characteristics.

Connie still was packing winds of 60 miles per hour and at Ocean City, Md., on the Atlantic 60 miles northeast of the reported center, winds of 75 miles per hour were reported.

As the intensity of the storm again began slacking, the Weather Bureau at Boston ordered hurricane warnings taken down from Block Island, R.I., to Eastport, Maine. Southeast storm warnings were substituted. The only hurricane warnings remaining in force were along the Maryland and Delaware coasts.

Tides of four or five feet above normal were predicted for the New Jersey and Long Island coasts with heavy rains forecast until the passage of the storm center.

Sheets of Rain Falling, So Woman Waters Lawn

BALTIMORE, (AP)—Back in the days before the rains and hurricane Connie came, Baltimore was facing a water shortage. An order went out — people in even-numbered houses water lawns on even-numbered days, people in odd ... etc.

Friday, as the wind drove the rain in sheets outside the windows of the Southwestern Police Station here, the phone rang. A woman's voice said:

"Is today the day for people in the odd houses or the even houses to water their lawns?"

"...in the even houses, lady," said the cop, calmly.

Board of Education in LaRue Hires 4 High School Teachers

One new teacher was hired and three instructors re-employed when the LaRue Board of Education met Thursday night.

Hired to teach mathematics in the high school was Robert Rice Jr. of Urbana, O. His wife and son will remain in Urbana and Mr. Rice plans to reside in Marion.

Re-employed for the high school staff were: Mrs. Lena Gillespie of LaRue, home economics; Mrs. LaFern Toye of the Barks Road, Marion, English, and Robert Canterbury of Marion, history.

Leaves for Service

A leave of absence, effective Sept. 1, was granted to Jack Howell who taught vocational-agriculture last year at LaRue. He will leave for military service.

Two vacancies now exist on the high school staff, those of vocational - agriculture instructor and physical science teacher.

Considerable discussion was devoted to the possible conversion of the high school heating system from coal to gas. C. L. Baxter manager of the Marion office of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. attended the meeting. Bids for coal for the 1955-56 year, which had been received, were tabled until a later date.

The contract for gasoline and oil for the school buses for 1955-56 was awarded to the LaRue Service Station.

Prosecutor's Letter Read

A letter from Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Carhart was read during the meeting. The school board had requested that the prosecutor represent them before the Board of Public Affairs in regard to a gate at the Lenox railroad crossing. The prosecutor advised the board to hire an attorney to represent them in the matter.

Mrs. Mabel Stout, head of the school cafeteria, attended the meeting and the board voted to increase the cost of school lunches. The price of school lunches had been decreased last school year to compensate for a surplus in the cafeteria fund and this surplus has been used, it was explained.

The board received the resignation of Mrs. Ethel Dutton as cafeteria helper and Mrs. Laura Plotner was hired to replace her.

It was announced that school will open Sept. 6 at 9 a.m. and close May 22, 1956. A teacher's meeting will be held Sept. 5.

Man Hurries Toward Storm—He Likes 'Em

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C. (AP) — Hugh D. Via Jr., of Ashland, Va., went home Friday night happy that he had witnessed hurricane Connie from a ringside seat.

Via spent Thursday night alone in his stalled car on a fishing pier at Atlantic Beach near here.

Via told State Highway Patrolman J. W. Sykes he had gone to Virginia Beach, Va., hoping to catch Connie there; then he hustled to Nags Head, N.C., when he was told the storm was expected to strike there. He finally ended up at Atlantic Beach.

"I like hurricanes," he told Sykes when police found him Friday.

Train Service Is Halted As Tracks Short Circuit

NEW YORK (AP) — Train service into and out of Grand Central Terminal was temporarily interrupted today for about an hour due to flood waters short circuiting electric power.

A New York Central Railroad spokesman said trains began moving out of the terminal again shortly before 11 a.m. after the water receded at the Mott Haven station in the Bronx.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, which uses the same tracks at that point, also was affected.

All of Andover's Dead Identified

Cause of Explosion Still Not Determined

ANDOVER, Ohio (AP)—All of the 21 known victims of the explosion and fire that destroyed a block-long row of buildings along Andover's village square Wednesday night have been identified.

The last body recovered was that of Miss Barbara Offut, 18, of New Lyme, Ohio, a waitress in the Gateway Restaurant where the explosion centered.

Another body previously identified as Miss Offut's, was found to be that of Mrs. Margaret L. Kirkhan of Ingram, Pa.

Twenty one persons were injured in the explosion.

Only a small strip of ashes remained unsifted last night. That was in a crawl space at the front of the restaurant.

Still undetermined was the cause of the blast. Investigators have failed to find any leaks in gas lines and have discounted a theory that the explosion was caused by lightning.

Mann, his wife, Katja, and their daughter, Ericka, had lived in a small house overlooking the lake of Zurich.

Mann's first novel, "Buddenbrooks," written 54 years ago, was described by him as the "finest success of my life." He said the novel gave him "the necessary self confidence as an author."

More than 25 books followed. "The Magic Mountain," published in 1924, was considered by many to be his best work and was especially popular in the United States. "Joseph and His Brothers" was among his better known works.

After going to the United States, he first lived at Princeton, N.J., and later in California.

Mann was championed by both the East German Communists and West Germans in the post-war years. In 1952 he termed freedom of opinion in the United States "rather restricted." He said, however, he was too much of an individualist to be a Communist and added that his residence on the Western side of the Iron Curtain was "not merely coincidence, a mistake or an accident."

Mann and his wife celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last February. They had three daughters and three sons. The eldest son, Klaus, died in 1949.

Akron Airman To Be Greeted By His Family

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Airman Steve Kiba Jr. comes home today after 33 months in a Red Chinese prison.

His parents and nine brothers and sisters will greet him at the Akron Airport. One sister, Violet, wasn't able to get leave from her Air Force post in New York.

Steve, who enlisted in the Air Force in July, 1950, was last home in 1952, on leave. Then he went to Korea, and his B29 was shot down. Eleven of the 14-man crew, including Steve, bailed out and were imprisoned as spies. The other three were killed.

Mayor Leo A. Berg will be at the airport, too, heading an official reception committee.

The mayor will ask the 23-year-old Airman to be his guest at the Soap Box Derby on Sunday.

"I cannot be sure he will want to accept, but I hope that he will," said the mayor.

After the formalities, the family plans to take Steve home.

"We will just rest and talk," said his sister, Irene.

There'll be a homecoming supper for the whole family — 12 grownups and 13 children.

ALBANY, Ga., (AP)—One man was burned to death and an Air Force pilot and woman critically injured when a flaming F84F jet fighter plane struck a power line, burst into flames, skidded across the top of a house and smashed it to a four unit apartment building in Albany Friday.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Charles H. Dudley, 28, of the 308th Squadron, 31st Wing, at Turner Air Force Base, was thrown clear but suffered critical injuries. He is from Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Nannie Mae Barry, occupant of the house struck by the plane, was critically burned.

Buses

seemed to have a "good plan" worked out whereby he could operate the buses at a profit.

Christian said he had built a small garage for maintenance work at the rear of his home. He said he has no space for storage of the vehicles yet, and would temporarily leave them parked in front of the courthouse.

He said he will lease four buses until the start of the school year, when he would bring in additional vehicles to handle students.

10 and 15-Cent Fares

Fares for children will be 10 cents a ride or three tickets for 25 cents. Adults will ride for 15 cents each. Transfers will be free.

Christian said he would go to Springfield early next week, probably on Tuesday, to make the final arrangements with the Springfield company for leasing the buses.

The buses will run from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the week, except on Friday nights when service will be extended to 10 p.m. for late shoppers.

He said all buses would use the Courthouse as their starting and ending point. There will be a short layover between each run to allow passengers time to transfer, he declared.

Christian said he would consult an attorney in the next few days to make an arrangement for a name for the new firm.

He said that by cutting costs, he hoped to be able to make the buses a paying operation in Marion.

Indians Pound Kansas City Twice To Stretch League Lead

Tribe Wins 17-1 and 6-5; New York Idled by Rains

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Cleveland Indians may not have the American League pennant on a platter, but they had every reason for optimism after belting the Kansas City Athletics twice yesterday, 17-1 and 6-5.

They banged out 18 hits, including four homers, in the first game, and that, as Manager Al Lopez remarked, "was the best hitting we've done in quite a while."

Also in the first game, righthander Bob Lemon returned to action after more than three weeks on the sidelines with a pulled leg muscle. He worked the first six innings, holding the A's scoreless and allowing only four hits for his 13th victory against 7 losses.

"I was worrying about Lemon," said Lopez, indicating that that's one worry, at least, now out of his mind.

It's been a pleasant mystery to Manager Al Lopez how his Tribe has managed to stay so close in the touch-and-go race without a consistent attack and with his ace righthander nursing injury. Now, regaining the lead for the first time since May 21, the Indians have jumped into a one-game edge, triggered by a five-game winning streak.

Stretch Margin

They lengthened the gap at Kansas City Friday while runnerup Chicago snared a 2-1 decision at Detroit.

Third place New York fell 1½ games behind and fourth place Boston wound up four games back as the result of rainouts fostered by Hurricane Connie.

A continued power streak and the first starting job in more than three weeks for Lemon brightened the pennant picture for the Tribe in the afternoon contest. Bobby Avila clubbed two of the Tribe's four homers, pairing his first with Jim Hegan's grand slammer in a seven-run first inning.

Lemon, now 13-7, worked just six innings in the first real test for his injured leg and gave only four hits. His control was perfect, walking none, and he fanned one.

Sal Maglie mopped up in the first game, giving three hits and an unearned run in the last three frames.

In the night contest, Cleveland overcame a 2-0 A's lead with five in the sixth as Hal Naragon tripled with two on and Al Smith hit a two-run homer. Ferris Fain doubled home what proved the clincher in the ninth as Ray Narleski choked off a Kansas City rally in the ninth after two runs scored.

Houtteman Wins

Art Houtteman, tagged for homers by Gus Zernial and Bill Renna, won his ninth. He was relieved by Don Mossi and Narleski as the A's scored in the seventh.

Lemon's victory in the afternoon game and Art Houteman's last night put the Tribe a full game ahead of Chicago—and riding a five-game winning streak. Last year at this time, incidentally, they were out in front by two and one-half games over the New York Yankees.

"How do you feel about your prospects of winning the pennant now, Mr. Lopez?"

"Well, we feel pretty good. Anytime a ball club can win five in a row you feel pretty good."

Any particular worries?

"I was worrying about Lemon, and Larry Doby—we've had a lot of injuries—but we're in better shape now than we've been for a long time. My big worry now is trying to win ball games every day."

And, he added, "They're all big games now."

Avila, Hegan Lead

Getting back to that first-game hitting spree:

Everybody got into the act, Bobby Avila and Jim Hegan with extra vigor. Avila drove in six runs with two homers and a single, and Hegan hit a round-tripper with the bases loaded.

Vic Wertz joined the derby by poling one over the fence with the bases empty.

In the nightcap the rejuvenated Indians collected a tidy total of 11 hits. They included a run-scoring double by Gene Woodling, a two-run triple by Hal Naragon and a two-run homer by Al Smith. Ferris Fain drove in what proved to be the winning run in the nightcap with a double in the ninth, scoring Avila, who had walked.

The White Sox took the lead on Jim Rivera's two-run homer in the first inning off loser Steve Gromek and managed to make it stand. Virgil Trucks, with help from Millard Howell who retired Ray Boone with two on in the eighth, won his 11th.

It was the fifth straight setback for the Tigers, now 9½ games behind in their fifth place spot.

Rivera has driven in seven runs in two games, counting five with two triples and a double at Kansas City Thursday.

Braves Belted

In the National, where Philadelphia at Brooklyn and Pittsburgh at New York also were washed away by heavy rain, Milwaukee tumbled 16½ games behind the front running Brooks in a 7-1 defeat at Chicago. St. Louis rallied twice to spill Cincinnati 8-7 in the only other game.

The Braves, scoring just two runs, were held to five hits by Bob Rush, who won his ninth. Dee Fondy lined a leadoff double and three followup singles gave the Cubs a 2-0 lead in the first off loser Ray Crone.

Reds Drop 8-7 Battle At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs blew a five run lead last night, regained the edge with a two run homer by Stan Palys and then blew the contest in the ninth inning. The St. Louis Cardinals wons 8-7.

Bill Virdon opened the final round for the Cards with a double off rookie Don Gross. Bill Sarni flied out and Alex Grammas was walked. After Harry Elliott flied out, Ken Boyer slammed a hot grounder down the third base line for a double.

Virdin scored easily and Grammas tallied the tying run when Palys made a bad peg to the relay man. Wally Moon singled home the winning run.

The Reds blew a five run lead at Chicago Thursday but came back to win 6-5 in 11 innings. They didn't have that luck last night.

Cincinnati brought in three runs in the first frame on three singles and three walks. Gus Bell homered with Ted Kluszewski aboard in the third to make it 5-0. It was Bell's 20th roundtripper.

Starter Joe Nuxhall was chased in the third when the Cards rallied for two runs on four singles and Johnny Temple's fumble of Moon's double play grounder. Nuxhall's relief, Rudy Minarcin, threw home runs balls to Virdon in the fourth and Moon in the fifth.

Palys broke the tie in the seventh with his two-run homer off Paul Lapalme.

Gross replaced Minarcin in the sixth and had little trouble until the ninth. The 24-year-old lefthander picked up his first major league decision, a victory, on Wednesday but he didn't have the stuff to prevent being tagged with the defeat. Brooks Lawrence was credited with the St. Louis victory, their fourth in a row.

The sixth place Reds, two games behind the Cubs and 2½ in front of the Cardinals, play St. Louis single games today and tomorrow.

Pleasant Team Blocks Elks in Drive for Title

(FINAL STANDINGS)

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Fraternal Order of Police | 13 | 3 .813 |
| Marion Elks | 12 | 4 .750 |
| Marion Indians | 11 | 5 .688 |
| Pleasant | 10 | 6 .625 |
| Prospect | 10 | 6 .625 |
| Green Camp | 8 | 7 .533 |
| Claridon-Caledonia-Martel | 3 | 12 .200 |
| LaRue | 1 | 14 .067 |

Sharrell Leffler and Pleasant blanked the Marion nine 4-0.

The win enabled Pleasant to deadlock Prospect for fourth spot in the final standings. Both squads battle this afternoon at Prospect for a berth in the Teen League playoffs which are to get under way Monday night at Lincoln Park.

FOP faces the Indians at 6:15 p.m. and the Elks go against either Prospect or Pleasant at 8 p.m. in the sudden death openers Monday. The two winners meet in a three game series for the Teen League crown beginning the following night.

Leffler allowed only four hits and struck out five while walking one.

Three runs on two hits in the second gave him the necessary margin. Pleasant added the final run in the fifth on one hit.

Jim Harris started for the Elks and was relieved by Larry Corbin in the fifth. They gave up six hits, Harris struck out seven and walked three. Corbin walked two.

Charlie Leffler had two hits for Pleasant while Coy collected two for the Elks.

Olson To Tackle Martinez Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Carl (Bobo) Olson, the relentless Hawaiian-born San Franciscan, tonight begins the job of proving he still is boss of the middleweight class.

The champ takes on Jimmy Martinez of Glendale, Ariz., in a 10-round non-title bout. It will be Olson's first fight since lightheavyweight champion Archie Moore knocked him out in three rounds in June.

Olson was expected to weigh in at about 165 pounds, five over the middleweight limit. Martinez' weight was estimated at 162.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Pitching—Bob Rush, Cubs, won his ninth by five-hitting Milwaukee while striking out six and walking but three in 7-1 victory.

Hitting—Wally Moon, Cardinals, drove in three runs, gaining a 5-5 tie with a home run in the fifth and bringing the winning marker across with a single in the ninth, in 8-7 victory over Cincinnati.

OSU's Weed Becomes a 'Thorn' For Cleveland in All-Star Action

BROWNS GET FIRST TOUCHDOWN IN ALL-STAR GAME. Underneath this mass of football players is Fullback Maurice Bassett going over for the first Cleveland Browns' touchdown in the 22nd annual All-Star football game at Soldier Field, Chicago.

Buckeye Star's Third Goal Gives Collegians 30-27 Win

CHICAGO (AP)—Four former pro coaches who seldom, if ever, could get the better of Paul Brown, succeeded in doing so Friday night, when their boys did a man's job in beating the Cleveland Browns.

Coaches Curly Lambeau, Hunk Anderson, Steve Owen and Hampton Pool got some consolation as their fine squad of thoroughly drilled All-Stars rolled up a record 30-27 triumph over the world pro champions. It was the first time the Browns lost a game in Chicago.

Some 75,000 fans and a national television audience saw the best-coached collegiate team in years gain their first decision over the pros since 1950. The Stars also scored their biggest point total since the series was inaugurated in 1934.

It was the first time old pro hands were called upon to coach the All-Stars—but it undoubtedly won't be the last — and the Lambeau - Anderson - Owen - Pool combo can consider itself the best unemployed pro football staff in the business.

Graham Missed

But they also had the manpower and brawn to cope with a Cleveland team lacking its great quarterback, Otto Graham, who retired.

Stardom has to go to tiny Tad Weed of Ohio State, a practice-perfect placekicker who booted three field goals and two extra points; quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame, who ran, passed and generaled the team unerringly; and Baylor's 190-pound halfback, L. G. Dupre, who bolted 74 yards in 12 carries and took three passes for 49 more.

This threesome should have a great future in pro ranks which they now join officially—the 140-pound Weed with the Los Angeles Rams, Guglielmi with the Washington Redskins and Dupre with the Baltimore Colts.

Guglielmi played the full game on offense and kept busy when he was not in the game taking notes on plays phoned down from the rim of Soldier Field by the methodical former Ram coach, Pool.

The 1954 All-America hit on 10 out of 19 tosses for 129 yards and picked up 6 yards on keeper plays.

The "up front" men—with linebackers Tom Bettis of Purdue, Frank Bernardi of Colorado and Sam Palumbo of Notre Dame among the top performers—held the Browns to 163 yards rushing and 162 passing on the 9 out of 18 completions by George Ratterman.

The collegians picked up 200 yards rushing.

The see-saw scoring came this way—

First quarter:

Weed put the Stars ahead 3-0 with a 21-yard field goal. Ratterman sneaked over from one foot after a long Browns' march. The Browns led 7-3.

Second quarter:

Frank Eidom of Southern Methodist smashed the final three yards after a 48-yard kickoff return by Marquette's Ron Drzewiecki and Dupre's 19-yard sprint. All-Stars 10-7.

Renfro Scores

Renfro scored on an 18-yard pitchout run to cap a 76-yard thrust in 10 plays. Browns 14-10.

Dupre's running set up a 5-yard scoring pitch to Henry Hair of Georgia Tech. All-Stars 17-14.

Ratterman passed 42 yards to Dante Lavelli then 25 to Renfro for a touchdown. Lou Groza's conversion attempt was blocked. Browns 20-17.

Third quarter:

Weed place-kicked a 14-yard field goal. Browns 20, All-Stars 20.

Fourth quarter:

Guglielmi hit Dupre for 19 yards to the Browns' 1. Mel Triplett of Toledo boomed across. Dave Leggett of Ohio State ran the ball over for the extra point. All-Stars 27-20.

Weed booted a 34-yard field goal. All-Stars 30-20.

Curly Morrison barreled five yards to score ending an 80-yard march with time running out as the All-Stars won 30-27.

VFW Crowned Champions in Pony Struggle

VFW is the 1955 Marion Pony League champ.

It downed G & G Homes 5-2 last night at Lincoln Park for the city title in two straight series games.

Mike Chamberlain and Steve Flesher combined to hold the losers to five hits and shut them out in the final six frames.

Four markers in the fifth on three hits off Bob Middleton was the margin of victory.

Pete Porietas led off the inning with a walk and Dale Walters reached base safely on a fielder's choice, with Porietas tying the score at 2-2 when he came home on an error by Middleton. Walters took third on a wild pitch and scored on a fielder's choice by Flesher. Steve Jenkins and Dave Rouse singled in succession and Rocky Evans drove both home with another safety.

G & G grabbed an early 2-0 lead with two runs in the first. Don Conkle drove in both runs with a single after Jerry Griffith reached base on a fielder's choice and Middleton banged out a hit. From there on out, the losers were held to three scattered singles.

VFW scored its initial run in the second on a double by Flesher, sacrifice and wild pitch.

Chamberlain gave up two runs, four hits and fanned nine while walking one in five innings. Flesher struck out six in the final two frames and gave up one hit.

Middleton was victim of a nine-hit VFW attack. He whiffed 10 VFW batters while walking seven.

Evans led the VFW hitters with three hits in three trips to the plate. Jenkins collected two. Conkle had three for three to pace the G & G hitting attack. Middleton came in with two.

Northern Prep Stars Down South 26-13 at Mansfield

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Yankees whipped the Rebels 26 to 13 last night in the tenth annual Ohio High School North-South football game before about 9,000 fans to continue their johnny-come-lately dominance over the downstaters.

In ringing up an unprecedented third straight conquest, and taking the lead in the scholastic series with five wins against four losses and a tie, the Northerners coached by Mel Knowlton of Alliance came from behind with three touchdowns within 10 minutes in the third quarter—all by 195-pound fullback Clayborn Giles of Alliance.

Bound for Toledo

Giles, who will enter Toledo University next month, was held to a two-yard gain in his lone try in the first half, but he romped for 114 yards in 10 last-half efforts to run away with both the scoring and ground-gaining honors.

The South, after taking a first-half six-point lead on a three-yard plunge by Chillicothe's Michigan-bound John Herrnstein, became a victim of fumbleitis in the closing sessions.

Curt Gentry, Portsmouth's fine halfback who has been hampered all week by a twisted knee, fumbled on the first play of the second half. Giles whipped 24 yards through center to score after Cleveland Latin's Ron Toth had recovered. That tied it as bearded John Kompara of Canton McKinley, the North's great tackle, missed the extra point.

But Gentry fumbled the ensuing kickoff, too, and Joe Holloway, little Massillon guard, fell on the ball on the South's 30. Five plays later Giles was in the end zone on a 14-yard romp. Kompara's conversion made it 13-6 for the North.

The South then stormed down to the North's 16, quarterback Bob Exline of Jackson tossing 13 yards to Newark end Darwin Watson for the game's only pass completion to feature the splurge. But Ernie Sheeler, Canton McKinley's fine end, tossed Exline for a 15-yard loss on fourth down, and the North promptly marched 69 yards in six plays, with Giles gaining 42 in three tries, including the 16-yard touchdown run.

Races 26 Yards

Later, just as the final quarter opened, Giles raced 26 yards to the South's five, from where Tom Barnett of Alliance circled end for the final Yankee score.

Dick Selcer, All-Ohio quarterback from Cincinnati Elder, came in for the South with the score 26-6, and promptly engineered the Rebels through a 56-yard drive, Herrnstein capping it with a three-yard plunge for his second touchdown. Exline booted the extra point.

Bob Rosburg Sets Pace for Action at Tam

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Rosburg is as unorthodox a golfer as you'll find, but he has the picture-swinging pros eating his dust in the "world" money rush at Tam O'Shanter.

Rotund Robert, with a sensational two rounds of 66-67 for 133—11 under par, today was setting a record pace by two strokes in the scramble for first prize of $50,000 in cash and an exhibition contract of a potential 105 matches worth $1,000 each.

He was better at the halfway mark by one stroke than Byron Nelson when the latter fired his Tam 72-hole record of 269 in 1945.

Following Rosburg into the third round was Wally Ulrich, who hooked up the best second 18-hole score of the field, a 66 for a midway total of 135.

At 138 was Henry Ransom the 1950 "world" winner. Grouped at 140 were Jay Hebert, former Louisiana State star; Gene Littler, fourth leading money winner, and Bo Wininger.

Farther behind were such big time champions as Doug Ford with an even par 144; Cary Middlecoff, 147; Jack Fleck, 142; Peter Thomson, 143; Sam Snead, 147; Lew Worsham, 148, and defending "world" champion Bob Toski, 152.

Among the major blowups in the second round Friday were Mike Krak, who zoomed to a 78 after sharing the opening lead with 66, and Fred Hawkins with a 76 to over-balance a 67.

Probably not since Paul "Little Poison" Runyan was knocking off the big shots 25 years ago with his chuckle-provoking back swing, has a pro come along like Rosburg to revive gossip among the conformist players.

Bespectacled, rather stoop-shouldered and sporting a bay window—all this makes him look out of place among the lean, weather-beaten bunch he travels with on the tourney circuit.

He grips the club as if it were a baseball bat.

"My dad gave me a golf club when I was two years old," he chuckles good-naturedly. "He told me to hit the ball. I guess I hold the club and swing it now, just like I did then. The big thing is to get the ball in the hole. I seem to be doing it."

Local Realtors Agree About National Issue

Group Says Federal Divisions Should Pay For Services Gained

Mounting evidence that Congress at its next session will approve a plan under which the federal government will make payments to local governments in lieu of property taxes for federal holdings was hailed today by Alonzo W. Granger, president of the Marion Real Estate Board.

Latest indication was a preliminary hearing held recently by a Senate government operations subcommittee in Washington to get a start on recommendations made recently by the committee on intergovernmental operations, Granger explained.

The chairman of the subcommittee said, however, that full-scale consideration would have to wait until next year. Seven bills have been introduced in Congress dealing with the problem.

"Present tax immunities of federal property have weakened many local governments," the commission said in its June report. The group recommended the payments, saying they "are necessary to help preserve financially healthy local governments."

"Realtors have long advocated such an equitable arrangement by which the federal government pays for the services it receives from the local government," Granger explained. "The National Association of Real Estate Boards reiterated this objective in its policy statement at its convention last year, and the Marion Real Estate Board repeats its concurrence."

Another group, the National Association of County Officials, just recently announced that it also would campaign for enactment of a law requiring the federal government to make payments in lieu of local taxes.

White Gaining Ground

The use of bright colors in automotive finishes has recently interested many psychologists. They point to the shift in popularity from subdued tones to multi-color pastels, saying that it signifies optimism and daring as opposed to pessimism and caution. Opinions may differ in this respect, but there is no denying that a color revolution has taken place.

One leading auto manufacturer says that the rise of white has been most notable and states that over 40 per cent of the cars now sold by his company employ white. This is used mainly in combination with other colors.

First Aid for the Ailing House

By ROGER WHITMAN

Q: I have acinder block home which is four years old. It was originally painted with a cement-base paint and then a coat of rubber-base masonry paint was applied. The walls need repainting and I would appreciate some advice as to what type of paint to use. What time of year is best for outside painting? Should the walls be washed before paint is applied? I would also like to know if it is better to use a paint spray than a brush?

A: Since you have used a rubber-base masonry paint on the walls, it would be advisable to use the same type of material again. It is not necessary to wash down the walls before repainting, but it is advisable to brush off any accumulation of dust. Grease spots, however, should be scrubbed off with a fairly strong solution of trisodium phosphate or washing soda. Thorough rinsing should follow. If proper precautions are taken against the settlement of mist from a paint spray gun, the spray job would be much faster and neater. However, if you are not well experienced with a spray machine, use the brush.

Q: Our walls are canvas-covered. Six months after they were painted, the paint developed a mass of fine lines, much like the crazying of the finish on a china plate. Can you advise us how to remedy this condtion?

A: The cause could be an inferior paint or the fact that the canvas was not the prepared type made for wall purposes. You give me no information on the brand of paint or just what canvas was used. I can only suggest that you try to rub down some of the irregularity with steel wool to get a fairly smooth surface, then try repainting.

Q: The basement stairs in our home come up into the kitchen. Stale odors either from the floor drain in the basement or products kept in the basement come up into the kitchen when the door is opened. How can I correct the condition?

A: The first thing to do is to pour several pails of water down the floor drain. It is possible that the trap is dry. Repeat the treatment every week or two. Corners and floor edges may have an accumulation of damp dust. Scrape it away and sprinkle with chloride of lime. Ventilate the area as thoroughly as possible. Also discard cartons, paper or books that have been wet or damp for a long time.

Q: We have tiling in our bathroom that has been there about 20 years. Under the sink and under the flush tank, the tile is beginning to blister and peel. In spots it is rusty. Is there any way I can refinish this

A: I presume the tile is of rubber or other composition. The blistering and peeling condition cannot be corrected except by taking out the damaged tiles and putting in new ones. I am afraid, however, you will have difficulty in finding a matching color. Of course, to prevent new tile from disintegrating, the condensation of the flush tank should be eliminated by either placing an insulating material inside the flush tank or installing a temperature - regulating valve made especially for the purpose. The cold-water pipe should be covered with insulation to prevent dripping in hot humid atmosphere.

NO FINISHING

Going to install a cedar closet? Forget about varnishing or painting the wood. It isn't necessary. Aromatic red cedar requires no finishing. Finishing the wood seals in the aroma that pleases people but displeases moths.

Add a Powder Room

A powder room can be added to almost any home, simply and reasonably, points out the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association. Often a closet, pantry or storage room will provide the necessary space. Place a toilet on one short wall and a lavatory on the other. Add a sliding door, cotton carpeting, and a ventilating fan connected to the light switch and there's your powder room. It is a valuable renovation which will provide real convenience and extra value on the real estate and rental markets.

Multi-Baths Are Popular

Over one-fourth of all new homes being built in America are equipped with more than one bathroom, according to the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association.

The association pointed out that multi-bath homes bring additional money on the real estate and rental markets.

10 Simple Tips Listed On Correct Methods To Use for Carpentry

Nails must be used properly to be used successfully.

It's as important, and as easy, to avoid "splitting headaches" as to avoid hitting your thumb when you watch what you are doing.

To get the best in strength, looks and satisfaction out of the western pine woods so widely used today for interior paneling, for home construction, and for do-it-yourself projects, the research laboratory of the Western Pine Association offers these nailing tips:

1. Choose the smallest nail that will do the job. You will not only minimize splitting, but save money.

2. A needle nose is fine for jet airplanes, but a blunt nose is better for nails. You can buy blunt-nosed nails, or you can blunt the points of sharp nails when their use results in excessive splitting. Sharp pointed nails, tests show, tend to wedge the wood apart as they are driven in; blunted nails cut through the wood fibers.

3. Where strength requires larger nails than a board will take without splitting, pre-bore holes slightly smaller than the nail diameter.

4. Choose boards with good nailing spots whenever you can. Nail placement is usually controlled by the building situation, and boards with many good nailing spots fit better with possible building situations than those with few such spots.

5. Avoid driving nails close to or into knots. The wood's grain generally is more distorted in a knot area, and the chances of splitting there are greater.

6. When nailing at the ends of boards, place the nails as far in from the ends as possible.

7. In using cupped or twisted boards, don't "drive home" nails with single blows. If you drive them in only part way, and set them later, there is less splitting danger.

8. Since warped or twisted stock is more likely to split than flat stock, use it only where splitting will not be objectionable either in looks or strength.

9. Any wood will suffer from improper nailing. Take your time and swing the hammer true.

10. Where maximum holding power is required, don't overlook the use of spiral-grooved nails and other new nail designs.

Personalized Bathroom

Manufacturers constantly are introducing new methods to personalize and glamorize American bathrooms, according to the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association.

A few innovations include: an all-purpose bathtub for the entire family, corner vanities, handsome fittings, non-sweat toilet tanks, and Mr. and Mrs. lavatories.

Kindergarten Instructor Builds House

Woman in Ohio Receives Aid From Husband For Project

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Ever think of building your own house with the fun of patting every little stone in place, and sweating lovingly over blocks, boards and beams? Helen and Stewart Welty of Fairborn, O., had that dream, and what's more they did something about it. They built a house so good in fact that it won first prize in a national do-it-yourself contest sponsored by Woman's Home Companion.

The stonework was done by Helen, every last bit of it. The finished Cape Cod house has three rooms down stairs, two bedrooms and bath upstairs. A garage will be completed soon.

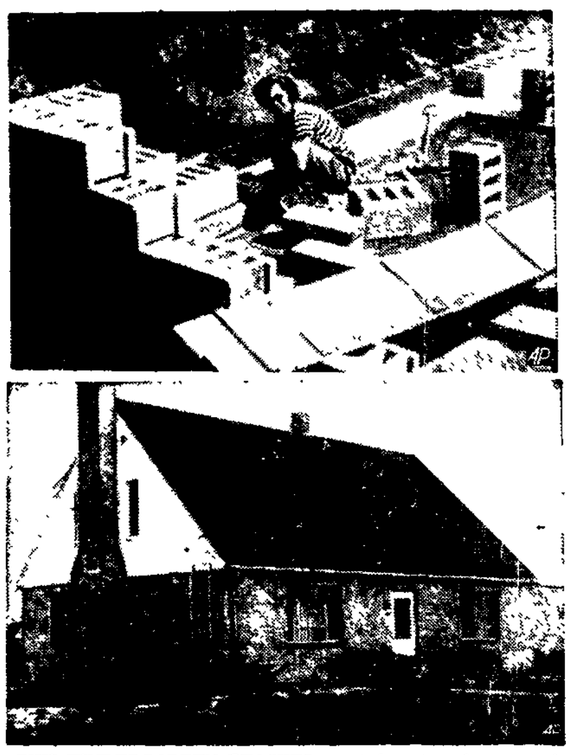
IT ALL BEGAN when the Welty's missed out on a house they wanted while they were scraping up the down payment. They decided to mend their heartbreak by investing in a mail order house plan and materials for a house to be built with their own hands.

"Little did I realize that two years after I put down that first stone I would lay the last," says Mrs. Welty. "I taught kindergarten half-day while we were building and I was always anxious to get home to my stone pile."

She wanted a stone house, and fitted every stone together just like a jigsaw puzzle. She didn't feel safe on a scaffold so the chimney was stone faced by climbing a ladder, requiring many trips. Thirty feet from ground level she placed the last stone.

The Welty's did their own work except for electrical and plumbing installations.

The house includes built-in features such as china and kitchen cabinets and shelves. Outdoor handiwork includes banked flower beds made of the same stone as the house. A current project includes an outdoor fireplace and basement recreation room.



THIS KINDERGARTEN TEACHER wanted a stone house so she built just that. It took her and her husband two years from beginning of their dream to the completion of the house

UPPER: Long way to go, Mrs. Helen Welty thinks as she puts down the first cinder blocks at home-to-be in Fairborn, Ohio. She and her husband used mail-order house plans.

LOWER: Two years later and this is the house that the Weltys built with toil and sweat. Mrs. Welty did all the stone work.

Patching Brickwork

Tips on Repair of Homes

By ANDREW C. LANG
Associated Press Staff Writer

DO . . . remove all loose mortar between the bricks by tapping lightly with a cold chisel and hammer.

DO . . . avoid damaging the solid mortar by taking out only that material which gives easily.

DO . . . hose down the entire area, being sure the water saturates the opening you have made.

DO . . . use a prepared mortar mix, carefully following the directions on how much water to use.

DO . . . apply the mortar to the joints with a pointing trowel, packing it in, then smoothing it off.

—:—

DON'T . . . forget to keep a wet rag or scrub brush handy to wipe off immediately any mortar that falls on the face of the bricks, as it may be difficult to remove later.

DON'T . . . neglect to use the end of the trowel to indent the mortar in the joints slightly so that rain water will shed quickly.

DON'T . . . consider the repair job finished until the patched mortar joints have been wet down at least once a day for several days.

DON'T . . . overlook the possibility of doing an overall first-class job and preventing future trouble by spraying or brushing the entire wall with a colorless waterproof compound.

Wood Preservatives

For arbors, trellises and fence posts, there are special protective coatings which retard the rotting of wood that must be placed below ground. These are known as wood preservatives. Get the non-staining type, if you plan to paint any part of the wood to harmonize with the exterior color scheme of your house.

For the finish coats on a fence, use regular house paint. This will serve, also, for trellises and arbors, although you may wish to use trim-and-trellis paint which is made especially for the purpose.

NEED SMOOTH SURFACE

A coat of paint will be only as smooth as the surface under it. Time spent in preparing a surface is never wasted.

Worn Out Faucets Need Replacement

Replacement of worn-out faucets is one of the most economical and sensible plumbing modernization projects for the homeowner, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau points out. Old faucets, afflicted with driposis, waste water and run up the water bill needlessly. If the leak happens to be in a hot water supply line, the cost is substantial, because then a fuel bill as well as a water bill is involved.

Modern precision-designed faucets are rugged. They have to be, in order to stand up to the daily routine of twisting and turning by large and small hands alike.

The fact that they last almost indefinitely without requiring major repairs or replacement testifies to the high quality of today's plumbing brass, as the faucet and drain fittings for bathtubs, lavatories, and kitchen sinks are referred to by the plumbing industry.

Yet, like any piece of mechanial equipment, a faucet is subject to the wearing out process. The ease with which worn-out parts can be replaced is an outstanding characteristic of modern chromium - plated brass faucets.

The seat on which the washer closes to shut off the supply of water is the heart of a faucet. Some manufacturers provide a barrel assembly, which can be replaced quickly when a faucet shows signs of losing its water seal.

Another outstanding feature of improved faucet design is the aerating type of spout, which adds air bubbles to the water as it flows. Aerated water never splashes on the floor, besides which it makes suds more readily and provided better rinsing action.

THEY TAKE "HIGH ROAD"

In many cities it is now possible to engage skilled painting contractors to paint all the hard-to-reach high places on the outside of a house, while the home owner prepares and paints the lower, easy-to-reach areas. In such cases, the painting contractor usually demonstrates methods of application and advises the home owner on painting procedure.

Steel Cabinets Can Be Used In Many Ways

Standard Sizes Allow Varied Arrangements To Fit Home's Needs

Steel kitchens, either for new homes or remodeling projects, can be tailored perfectly to room size requirements and still provide the advantages of financial savings through precision mass production.

Standard sized steel cabinets can be utilized for virtually any kitchen, regardless of the room's size or shape.

This is because steel kitchen cabinet manufacturers today offer a wide variety of standard production cabinets, both in terms of sizes and styles. If the steel cabinets theselves will not completely fill all wall areas in a particular plan, steel filler and scribing strips, with the same baked enamel finish as the cabinets, are utilized to make a continuous installation.

The fillers are installed in such a manner that they appear to be integral parts of the steel cabinets and actually contribute to the beauty of the kitchen ensemble. They are used between two cabinets, between the side of a unit and the adjoining wall or at corners in L and U shape kitchens when corner cabinets are not used.

These steel filler strips are of varying width and standard cabinets are selected to fit so closely, in most cases, that few strips are needed. A filler strip between the side of a cabinet and an adjoining wall can be scribed to match the wall contour prefectly and in such cases is known as a scribing strip. Such strips are particularly valuable in providing a workable installation when the walls are not plumb.

Scribing fillers between the end cabinet and an adjacent wall also are utilized to permit free opening of cabinet doors and drawers without any interference.

Filler strips are attached to the cabinets and are made in widths and heights to coordinate with the size of the steel wall or base units with which they are used. Often standard steel cabinets fill the desired wall areas without use of filler strips.

SHUTTERS ADD BEAUTY

Sometimes a plain little house can be made much more attractive by the addition of false shutters. Easy to build, they are nailed or screwed to the wall of the house after the house and shutters are painted. By painting the shutters in a color that is bright and cheerful, a colorful and attractive note can be added to the house.

Patio Is Included in Plan

SLIDING GLASS DOORS open two bedrooms of this house into a private walled-in garden as well as opening the living room onto a covered porch adjoining a garden patio. A folding wall makes one of the front bedrooms available as a study extending the living room. Basement stairs at the kitchen door and an abundance of closets are among other features. This is plan M-472AP by Rudolph A. Matern, architect, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 2, N. Y. The house covers 1,060 square feet without garage and porch.

Growing Pains

Flowers Assist Illusion Of Cool Home in Summer

By ALBERT S. FULLING
Associated Press Staff Writer

"Cool," the man said, easing into the chair, "real cool."

The temperature outside was a steamy 94. Inside the house it was 88.

Circulating fans throughout the house helped, but the illusion of coolness was all done with bouquets of flowers—so fresh and gay they revived limp spirits, soothed heat glazed eyes, and made the living room, as the visitor said—look real cool.

There are a few simple things to know about keeping flowers heads up in hot weather.

BUT BEFORE we get into them, here's a prime hot weather tip for gardeners: No garden chores, neighbor, until after sundown when the heat is brutal during the day. Don't push yourself into a heart attack or prostration while the heat's on. You're not replaceable. The flowers and vegetables are.

Now to the perky flower department:

Cut your flowers with sharp pruning shears or sharp knife early in the morning or evening, with the latter preferred. Place them immediately in a pail of warm water, about 100 degrees. The Missus always totes a bucket of warm water with her. Flower baskets are more picturesque and glamorous, but do nothing for the flowers.

Store your blooms for about four hours or more in a cool, humid place. We store overnight in the garden house—which is coolish—such bulky flowers as zinnias. Anything which can be accommodated in the refrigerator, such as roses, goes there.

Before storage, strip such leaves away as will be below the waterline when the flowers are arranged. Leaves below the waterline decompose rapidly and befoul the tiny tubes in the flower stem by which water rises to sustain the flower head and decoratively essential leaves.

WHEN YOU ARRANGE flowers, nip off with a sharp tool the bottom of the stem before you place in your decorative container filled with fresh cool water. Don't crowd the arrangement. You don't need a lot of water in the container. Most flowers take water only through the bottom of the cut stem. You must, however, maintain the water level and change the water daily.

Nip off darkened stems daily in loose bouquets when you change the water. Fresh water can be maintained around formal arrangements by holding the container under an easy flowing faucet and adding a few ice cubes before putting them back in place in the room.

Why warm water when the flowers are first cut and cool water and ice cubes later?

Well, warm water rises rapidly to give the flower a quick boost. Cool water subsequently, plus ice cubes, delays bacteria activity and vegetable decomposition which would befoul and clog the stem capillaries.

If you don't want to go through all this—fresh flowers from the garden daily (if you have enough) will suffice. The more you pick, the more they grow. If you let flowers go to seed, they'll consider their duty to nature done and stop trying.

If you love flowers, see to it that the wilted and done for blooms are tossed out promptly.

Flowers, like women, prefer to be seen at their best.

PAINTING PLANS

During vacation time it's a good idea to plan the home redecorating that you will do for the fall and winter ahead. While you can work out in the yard or on a covered porch, it's a good time to start any furniture finishing or refinishing that will add beauty to your rooms. Work where it's dust-free.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORY of A. G. Fichtner who passed away one year ago today, August 13th, 1954.
True was his heart,
His actions so kind,
His life a pattern
To those left behind.
A beautiful soul
In a garden of rest
'Tis true what they say
God chooses the best.
Sadly missed:
Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Albert C. (Whitey) Lamb.
Time marches on, two years have past,
Since you were laid to rest.
We've missed your smile, your word of cheer,
All through the lonelness of this second year
Yes time goes on, but we can't forget,
The ache in our hearts is lingering yet.
The Family.

IN MEMORY of Mac Weist who passed away one year ago August 15, 1954.
He never walked a lonely way,
Friends lingered by his side.
He loved to have them with him, so
The way he walked was wide
He never measured friendships by
Your gold or your renown.
His friends were legion—nationwide,
In country and in town.

He never walked a lonely way,
So many were his friends,
He loved to stop and chat awhile
As down life's path he'd wend
And when you gazed across the crowd
At trials where you met.
His greeting was a friendly smile,
The kind you don't forget.

He never walked a lonely way,
And, somewhere, in the blue
He'll smile that same old winning grin
He had for me and you
And soon he ll lead a smiling throng
Along a path that's gay . . . .
T'will be the usual thing for one
Who trod the friendly way
Mrs Mildred Weist and Family
Mrs J T Jones

IN LOVING MEMORY of Mrs Bertha Fogle Faulk, my dear wife, who passed away two years ago today Aug. 13, 1953.
Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man heareth my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and sup with him, and he with me.—Revelation 3 20.
Sadly missed by her husband.

Chicago Puts Old Autos in Museum

CHICAGO (UP) — A new room for old cars was opened recently at Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry.

Entitled "Cars of Yesteryear," the exhibit presents a selection of antique cars chosen for their representation of the technical development of the automobile.

Each of the 14 cars in the collection is typical of its particular period and represents the mechanical genius of its day. All have been renovated and could be driven under their own power.

Familiar appliances and objects contemporary with the automobile of each period also are displayed, to give visitors a better "time sense." These include a Regina music box, an Edison phonograph and a late 19th century wall telephone.

The oldest car in the collection is a three-wheeled Bernardi (1893-94) donated by the Italian government. It has a one-cylinder motor, platinum hot plate ignition and water cooling. Its top speed was 22 miles per hour.

Seven-Day Food Supply Recommended by CDA

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (UP) — Families should keep a seven-day reserve food supply in their homes as a defense against nuclear attack, according to the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

The FCDA originally recommended only a three-day supply. It increased the suggested amount because of the hazards of hydrogen bomb fallouts.

"Weapons have grown bigger and our planning must change accordingly," said Theodore Willcox, acting director of the FCDA Welfare Office. "Fall-out might keep people in shelters from anywhere from a few days to a week. If families plan against the larger hazard, it stands to reason that there would be considerably less suffering."

MUSKRAT BITE

MUSKEGON, Mich. (UP) — Eugene Davison, 17, suffered a severe bite on his hand when he mistook a muskrat for his shoe. The youth had thrown the shoe at the animal in the dark and was bitten when he went to pick it up.

Rev. Harold G. Sanders

The guest speaker at Trinity Baptist Church Sunday morning will be Rev. Harold G. Sanders, pastor of First Baptist Church at Tallahassee, Fla. and son-in-law of the pastor, Rev. J. B. Holloway. The subject of his message will be, "Minimums for the Master." Active in denominational and civic affairs, he has served as president of the Florida Convention, on the board of trustees of Stetson University, on the board of trustees of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, state chaplain of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Florida, and a member of the Exchange Club of Tallahassee. Following his visit with his family at the Trinity Baptist parsonage this week, he will attend the Southern Baptist Assembly at Ridge Crest, N. C. and deliver a series of addresses to a conference of Sunday School workers who will have a delegation of more than 3,000 people from Baptist churches throughout the South.

The annual corn roast sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of the church for all the church familes will be held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Smith, on Route 98. Following the supper, colored pictures will be shown by Dana G. Barber who has returned from a trip to Europe where he was a delegate to the Jubilee Congress of the Baptist World Alliance in London, England.

Mt. Gilead School Faculty Completed

MOUNT GILEAD — Teaching staff at the Mount Gilead School was completed this week with the hiring of Mrs. Helen Burggraf of Cardington as the fifth grade teacher.

Mrs. Burggraf has 20 years teaching experience and has taught in the Cardington and Edison schools.

Registration for students new to the Mount Gilead school district will be held sometime during the week of Aug. 29. First day of school will be on Tuesday, Sept. 6, when students will attend an all-day session. A teachers' meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 5.

The board passed a resolution stating that it will accept no additional students living outside the Mount Gilead exempted village school district, with or without tuition, unless they are seniors and have attended Mount Gilead High School for the previous three years.

Baptist Group Schedules 'Day Camp' Next Week

The Marion Baptist Association Day Camp will be held next week on the Weiss farm on the Somerlot Rd. Arrangements for the camp have been made by Mrs. Alfred Nothstine of Green Camp, director of children's work in the association. The director will be Mrs. J. B. Holloway of Marion, assisted by workers from various churches in the association. The sessions will be held each day from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and workers from the churches participating in the project will provide transportation for the children each day, Monday through Friday. The children will take a sack lunch with them each day and milk will be provided by the committee in charge.

Spinster Reaches 101

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Miss Mary Kelly, 101 Friday, doesn't regret having remained single.

"Men are all right in their own way," she opined, "but there's no reason to think that they're all-important."

A Sermonette

By REV. ASHLEY BOOTH
Pastor of Central Christian Church

"When he came to himself. . . Luke 15:17.

As he played in concert, the great violinist Paganini, discovered that the strings on his instrument were weak. They began to snap. First the E string, then the A, and finally the D broke. This left him only the low-throated string pitched at G. This, however, did not deter him. He continued and gave a masterful concert to the vast audience.

The epilogue to this incident has a strange twist. At his death the great musician left his marvelous instrument to his native city of Genoa on condition that it must never be played again. The condition was unfortunate, for wood has the peculiar quality that it must be used and handled or it warps. As soon as it is discarded rot sets in. The lovely violin of the master of tone has become worm-eaten and has no value except as a relic.

SO WITH A religious faith. A set of beliefs which are not used have no more value than a refrigerator for an Eskimo. Frank Laubach, who has launched a new front in Christian missions with the program of literacy, reminds us forcibly that we are to "Wake up or blow up"! Faith must be used or it deteriorates. A spiritual ultimatum confronts us today, and individuals or in wholesale we are forced to choose.

We have recognized in part but we have still to learn that if we would stop the communist menace we need to stem the tide of hunger before we inject political ideas.

Our powers of observation confirm the testimony of J. Edgar Hoover that juvenile delinquency is on the rise, and that a root cause is parental neglect.

From time to time local leaders and national figures have capitalized on fear and ignorance to elevate themselves, using the methods of the totalarian state while decrying them in public.

EDUCATION has not escaped, for we see two giants wrestling: those who would abolish the past, and those who believe that education is still the simple three R's. Between, we need to steer a steady course.

Nor has the church lived above the turmoil. For some the church is "they," when Christ calls us to live in the "we" relationship.

The heart of the problem is ourselves. The disturbing things that confront the world are reflections of the problems within us.

God has set the alternatives before us. In the early days of the Old Testament man might take refuge from his enemy by grasping the horns of the altar. Eventually, however, he had to face his adversary on the dusty road or in the market place. He only escaped temporarily. Nor do we avoid the severities of life by playing the game of Pollyanna. We used to sing "Wishing will make it so." While there is some truth in the sentiment, it is dangerous to believe that evil will be overturned merely by our whistling in the dark. The stakes are high. One slip by one of the great powers can send our world hurtling down the halls of darkness more completely than the decay of the ancient Roman empire. Eventually we must face up to the world. Eventually we must face ourselves.

A YOUNG MAN of a certain high school became the butt of many jokes. Apparently the ridicule came not from the fact that he was a brilliant fellow, but the habits of living he had developed. He lived by a very rigid schedule. One question has always remained: while he had the makings of a political genius, did he become more of the same kind of rigid person or had he learned to unbend? Can we picture ourselves at the end of life if we continue the same course we now pursue? The prodigal son came to himself. He did not deteriorate. He made his choice.

We, too, face God's alternatives in life. God still prods us to "Wake up or blow up." It comes from the lips of the eternal when our Lord said to take up a little cross so that we might become a good follower.

Children 9 and 5 Left To Shift for Themselves

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Judge Harry F. Walsh of Juvenile Court sentenced a New Miami couple to a year in the workhouse for neglecting two of their children in what he said was "the worst" case in the history of the court.

Neighbors told the court yesterday that Jesse and Rosalie McDay, both 38, went to Alabama last weekend. They took three children with them but left her 9-year old daughter and 5-year-old son to shift for themselves at home.

The judge also fined the McDays $1,000 apiece.

Juvenile authorities are caring for the five children now.

Officials Predict Biggest, Best Fair Yet

6-Day Show Set To Begin On Saturday

Entries May Set New Record; Full Slate of Activities Scheduled

A bigger and better fair is promised this year for Marion County by fair officials. The 1955 fair will open Aug. 20 and last six days to Aug 25.

More booths and exhibits and a larger number of entries are expected this year than in the past. With the deadline for entries today, William Haley, fair secretary, reports the entries may set a new record

Junior Fair Improved

A larger and better Junior Fair section is also promised. This year 57 booths have been entered in the Junior Fair building by home economics, vocational - agriculture and 4-H groups. This is a new record.

Also setting a new record is the number of floats entered by 4-H clubs in the county-29. These floats will be judged in the morning of Aug. 25 and paraded at the the senior fair livestock.

Following the parade of the floats in front of the grandstand, they will be paraded through the downtown streets of Marion. The schedule calls for them to be in the downtown area about 2:30 p.m Police have been notified and will block off traffic along the route of the parade.

The aim of the downtown parade is twofold—to promote interest in the fair and to give more persons an opportunity to see the handiwork of the young farmers

Admission to the fairgrounds will be 50 cents with a 25 cent charge made for cars. Admission to the grandstands for special events will be 75 cents.

Patrol To Be on Duty

A police force will be on the grounds both day and night to see that laws of the state and rules of the fair are enforced and to handle parking facilities.

A full slate of activities is planned this year. There will be four nights of harness racing. Races will be held Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Eight races are on tap Saturday night and six races will be run the other three nights. Purses amounting to $6,500 are being offered.

A special attraction which is expected to draw a large crowd is the Ohio Western Horse Show scheduled to be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at the grandstand.

Wednesday will again be Junior Fair Day. This year all junior fair livestock will be judged on that day. In the past, junior fair livestock has been judged on the same days as the senior livestock.

A public church service will be held Sunday morning of fair week at 11 a.m.

Stock Judging Monday

Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. and Sunday evening at 8 p.m., an automobile thrill show will be held in front of the grandstand. This year three groups will compete against each other in stunt driving. The three groups are the Dick Rogers' All American Motor Maniacs, the Auto Daredevils and Billy Green's Canadian Aces.

Livestock judging in the senior division will begin Monday.

To be judged Monday morning starting at 9 a.m. are sheep, poultry, farm produce and dairy cattle

Getting Set for County Fair

Night Show Of Holsteins Will Be Tried

New Arrangement Set Up in Bid To Attract Additional Spectators

A new idea in livestock judging, designed to help attract more spectators, will be tried at the Marion County Fair this year.

For the first time in the history of the fair, judging of Holsteins in the dairy cattle judging will be undertaken at 7 p.m. on Monday. This is an innovation from previous years when the Holsteins were judged during the day along with the other dairy cattle breeds.

Purpose of the time change is to give more persons an opportunity to observe the judging. Fair officials note there are a large number of Holstein's in Marion County and interest in them is high. But in former years attendance at the Holstein judging was restricted because judging of other dairy cattle was held at the same time, they explain.

Special Awards, Too

In addition to the special judging time, there will be special awards in the Holstein class. These awards will be in two special classes. One will be $15 to the owner of the first prize cow four years old or older and $10 to the owner of the second prize cow in this class. The same special awards will also be offered in the second class for three year old cows.

Cost of these prizes will be shared equally by the Ohio Holstein-Freisian Association and the Marion County Fair.

There will also be special awards totaling $150 provided by the Marion County Holstein Association and the Marion County Fair. These will be for aged cow four years or older, cow three to four years; cow two to three years; pair of cows, four years or older; pair of cows, three to four; pair of cows, two to three; three generation group of two females and one male or three families; and cow with best udder. There will be four prize winners with the top prize $15, second prize of $10 and third and fourth prizes of $5 each in each class.

Other Dairy Judging

Other dairy cattle judging will be held on Monday also starting at 9 a.m. and will include three other breeds — Guernsey, Brown Swiss and Jersey. Regular prize lists for all four breeds will be in 17 different classes with first prizes starting at $9 and ranging down to $2 for some sixth, seventh and eighth places. Judge for all the dairy cattle will be Henry Conklin of Plain City. Dairy cattle department superintendent is William G. Earl.

Beef cattle judging will be held beginning at 9 a.m. Tuesday with George H. Wilson of the Ohio State University as the judge.

There will be two classes for the beef cattle — one for the Hereford breed and the other for the Angus breed. There will also be 21 prize divisions in each of the two classes with first prize in each division of $9 and other prizes ranging down to $2.

The Lockwood Lumber Co. will present a silver trophy for the champion angus either bull or heifer. Superintendent of the beef cattle department is Oscar Murphy.

Sheep judging will be held beginning at 9 a.m. on Monday with

Horse Show, Auto Daredevil Contest, Harness Racing To Be Fair Features

For the first time this year, the Marion County Fair will feature a Western Horse Show. Sponsored by the Ohio Western Horsemen's Association, the show will be held in front of the Grandstand Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The show will have 11 classes and is expected to draw show horses from all over the state. Contributing to the caliber of horses expected in the show is the fact the Ohio State Fair horse show will be held the following day, and horses entered in the Marion event may go directly to Columbus without delay.

THE 11 CLASSES to be featured are: Western Parade, Western Spotted Horse, Western Pony, Western Plain Horse, Western Ladies, Western Palomino, Western Pony (48 inches and under), Western Single Hitch, Western Pleasure Horse, Western Stock Horse, and Western Horse Stake.

All first, second and third place winners in the Spotted Horse, Plain Horse and Palomino classes will enter the Horse Stake Class or forfeit their winnings.

Judge of the show will be Col. Leon Robinson of Dunkirk Ringmaster will be Ray Retterer, while the show chairman is L. M. Wickersham.

Horses will be shown at a walk, trot and canter. Cash prizes and medals will be awarded winners of the show.

ANOTHER SPECIAL feature will be the Monday evening judging of the Holstein dairy cattle. This is the first time in the history of the fair that any dairy cattle judging is to be done in the evening.

The Ohio Holstein - Fresian Association has offered $50 in prizes to owners of top cows. Any resident of the county who has not won similar prizes at any other fair in the state is eligible for the awards.

A PRIZE OF $15 will be given the owner of the best four-year-old cow, and $10 will go to the owner of the second place cow in that class. Similar prizes will be awarded by the Ohio group to owners of cows in the three-year-old class.

The fair will match the state organization's prize with $50 which may be placed on any class of cow, while the Marion County Holstein Club is offering $75 in premiums for certain classes of Holsteins. That offer also will be matched by the fair officials.

Cattle must be registered with the Holstein-Fresian Association of America in order to be eligible for the special prizes.

Three auto daredevil shows will compete against each other

Use of Fertilizers Grows in California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — If you ever waited in your automobile while a 100-car freight train passed by, you have an idea how much commercial fertilizer is used in California every day.

Allen B. Lemmon, chief of the chemistry bureau of the state's department of agriculture, said that is how much fertilizer is used by California farmers every day of the year.

Lemmon also pointed out that the greatest agricultural state in the nation, with the total value of crops at $2,491,000,000 last year, is making a revolutionary change to liquid plant food.

Sales of "aqua ammonia," the liquor fertilizer, amounts to about 100,000 tons yearly, about 18 per cent of the half million tons of fertilizer used. Use of the liquid is increasing about five per cent a year, Lemmon added.

Safety Advice Offered For Electrical Storms

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UP) — The safest refuge during a thunderstorm is inside an automobile with an all-metal body, according to a Michigan State College safety specialist, David G. Steinicke.

But if you're not near an auto when the storm hits, Steinicke said the best place to head for is a large metal or metal - frame building. If you can't find indoor shelter, keep away from small sheds and shelters in an exposed area.

Isolated trees, wire fences, hilltops and open spaces also are dangerous to be near during an electrical storm, he added. Seek shelter in a cave, a depression in the ground or in a heavily wooded area.

If you're indoors when the storm strikes, keep away from metal objects and open doors and windows

Fair Buildings Are Improved; Track Graded

Although no new buildings have been erected since the 1954 Marion County Fair, an extensive face-lifting program has resulted in improvements to several of the buildings.

Racing enthusiasts will notice the new hub-rail around the inside of the track. Also planned to be completed before fair time is grading and dressing of the track.

Extensive repairs have been completed to the junior fair beef barn where a longer and new roof has been installed, as well as a new foundation.

Between the cattle barn and the sheep barn has been built a pole barn of approximately 50 by 100 feet in size. This shelter area will be used for tying cattle.

Year-round maintenance to the fairground buildings is provided by Henry Krock, caretaker.

New TV Sets Could Get Moon's Radar Signals

CHICAGO (UP) — The newest television receivers had enough power to receive a radar signal from the moon 250,000 miles away, according to Ray De Cola, a director of engineering.

De Cola said the receivers have twice the power of the radar equipment used by the U. S. Army's Signal Corps in its history-making experiment in which a radar signal was transmitted to the moon and picked up when it "bounced" back to earth.

Show of Farm Machinery To Be Emphasized

New Location at South End of Grounds Near Main Entrance Set Up

Farm machinery and other general interest exhibits will be given added emphasis at this year's Marion County Fair.

Occupying a starring role among the exhibits will be the displays of new and improved models of farm machinery by the implement dealers in Marion County.

The farm machinery this year will also help to dress up the appearance of the fairgrounds with its new location in the south end of the fairgrounds near the main gate.

Record Expected

W. H. Guy, equipment superintendent, said the machinery exhibits are expected to set a new record in the number and types of machinery on display. Nearly all manufacturers have come out with new and improved models on all types of farm machinery, he explained.

Highlighting the machinery exhibits will be the new model tractors and combines.

Placing of the machinery exhibits near the gate will not only improve the appearance of the fairgrounds but will allow more room for other exhibits in the spaces near the grandstand occupied by the machinery last year, Guy said.

Attracting interest of both rural and city residents will be an exhibit by the Ohio Edison Co. of an all electric model farm.

Built To Scale

Housed in a trailer, this model farm is on a small scale but is fully equipped with scale model electric motors, lights, and other types of electric farm equipment all of which operate, company officials say. There is even a scale model milk tank truck pulled up to the milk house on the farm and a hose is attached to the truck through which it appears that milk is being pumped into the tiny tank truck.

The State Department of Highways will have an exhibit at the fair showing various highway improvement projects constructed or under construction throughout the state.

The Marine Corps will have a display of various small caliber weapons in connection with a recruiting tent.

Other Displays

In addition to these displays there will be the usual displays of the various Marion County granges, including needlecraft, other homecrafts such as canned goods and baked goods, flower arrangements and so on.

Exhibits in the Junior Fair division will also hit a new record for number and type this year. The Junior Fair will have some 53 exhibit booths this year compared with only 35 last year.

In addition Junior Fair members will be provided with a tent by the Ohio Edison Co. where they will stage contests and demonstrations. Included will be a nutrition revue and a style revue.

Six-Year-Old Boy Gets Training With General

FT. KNOX, Ky. (UP) — They rolled out the red carpet here for the Army's youngest two - star general, six - year - old Laurence (Mike) Kelly, who had written Maj. Gen. George W. Read Jr., asking how he could become a general.

General Read thought he would show the boy and appointed him an honorary major general for a day. A staff car called for Mike at his school and brought him here for tank rides, tours of the armored center and dinner with the troops. Mike's father was a jet pilot killed in action in Korea.

OUR ten year old must have played and commented on a dozen pianos before we met Baldwin's Acrosonic. Then—it was love at first sight. Here was a spinet just his size (and the proportions were perfect for our living room too). Timidly, he reached for the keyboard—it was love at first touch. The response was instantaneous. Rich full tones rolled out. The Acrosonic may be a spinet but there's nothing miniature about its playing power! Really there are so many reasons why the Acrosonic is a wonderful piano for children as well as adults—we think you should know about them too.

Marion Star's Award Set for 4-H Members

$50 Cash Prizes To Be Given to Outstanding Boy, Girl at Junior Fair

One of the highlights of the awards presentation at the Junior Fair program Wednesday night of fair week will be the presentation of $50 cash awards to the outstanding 4-H boy and 4-H girl in the county.

The awards will be given by The Marion Star. The boy and girl will be selected from a list of nominations submitted by 4 - H clubs in the county.

Each club is permitted to submit one name in nomination. These nominations must be made by Monday, Aug. 15. A meeting will be held next week of the 4-H Advisory Council to choose the winners of the awards.

The council will rely mainly upon the 4-H activities of the boy and girl in determining the winners. Each nominee must submit an application blank listing all his 4-H activities, as well as activities in the community.

In case there is an extremely close race among nominees in the 4-H activities category, the community activities will be used to determine the winners.

The Advisory Council is composed of four 4-H Club advisers, four parents of 4-H members and four club members.

Advisers on the council this year are Mrs. Ralph Williams, James Johnson, Mrs. Harry Brewer, and Mrs. Charles Fogle.

The club members are Roberta Shorter, Fred Isler, Ronnie Gist and Jeannie Parker.

The 4-H activity which will have the most bearing on the outcome of the event is leadership, according to rules set up for the contest.

4-H Superintendent

Joe Vogel

Superintendent of the 4-H department and in charge of the Junior Fair building at the fair is Joe Vogel. He was elected to the board from Scott Township.

Grave Editing Needed

OVID, Mich. (AP)—It says on his gravestone he died in 1945, but Charlie Starr was still going strong on his 102nd birthday in 1955.

When his wife died several years ago, Starr thought he would save some trouble by having a gravestone made for himself. He had "1945" chiseled on it, figuring a couple of years' difference would not matter.

Now the stone is 19 years off, and Charlie only last year gave up his regular exercise of chinning himself on an apple tree in the backyard.

Electrical Engineer Offers Safety Tips

CHICAGO (UP) — For the person who doesn't know what type of fuse to use in his home and who keeps plugging appliances into a circuit until the fuse blows, University of Illinois electrification specialists have a few pointers:

1. A fuse is a safety check in each circuit and will blow when the load on it goes beyond its rating, such as 15 amperes, 20 amperes or 30 amperes. The fuses blow to prevent the wires from heating and possibly starting a fire. Putting in a larger ampere fuse, or a coin, is asking for trouble.

2. Appliances won't perform at their best when they can't get enough electricity.

The specialist said the answer usually is more circuits or a larger wire. They suggested that a householder seek the advice of an electrical contractor or a power company's service engineer in order to get more use out of every power dollar.

FRIENDLY LETTER

WESTBROOK, Me. (UP) — Ten-year-old Donn Sinclair had no ax to grind when he dashed off a note to President Eisenhower. He told the President "I have noticed many people write you when they want something, but this is just a friendly letter." He went on to detail his hobbies and plans for the future.

Teeth Called Healthier In Southern Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — As a whole, residents of southern Minnesota have better dental health than their northern neighbors.

"Too often, surveys reveal northern area high school students with full upper dentures," the state's health department reported.

Reasons cited for the difference included, economic situation, lack of understanding and personal interest, the need for improved dental health education and dentist distribution.

Jordan said Minnesota ranks second nationally in dentist-population ratio, but he said half the dental manpower is in metropolitan areas which have only one-third of the state's population.

ROUTED

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP)—Mrs. Stanley Kant told police a man entered her kitchen and ordered her to "stick 'em up." She said she picked up a dishpan in which she was washing dishes, hit him over the head and chased him into an alley.

Credit System Called Vital to Service Station

TULSA, Okla. (UP)—Some 18,000,000 American drivers do not pay cash when they stop at service stations across the nation.

Instead, they use credit cards which provide convenient service for the buyer and more than three billion dollars worth of business annually for station owners.

The credit card idea, which began in the 1920's when leading oil companies started allowing traveling salesmen to charge purchases, has advanced rapidly in the past five years, growing into an expensive, but yet productive, part of the oil and auto products industry.

Under the system, issuing companies guarantee payment to lessees of filling stations handling the firm's products. To use the cards, operators must require that purchases not be taken away without being put into or attached to the car, and the card not have expired. Lessees must submit invoices signed by purchasers.

The cost of processing applications for credit cards, which involves establishing credit ratings, runs into a large expenditure, oil companies say, but, as one marketer put it, "if we gave up issuing credit cards, our retail business would drop to almost nothing."

Cards may be used not only for buying gasoline and oil, but for many other products on sale at stations. One firm allows credit up to 200 pounds of fertilizer to motorists with yards to keep up.

The cards are good at all stations leased from large oil companies by means of exchange agreements.

SOMEBODY'S WAY OFF

TOPEKA, Kan. (UP) — Kansas' 1955 legislature appropriated $135,000 to renovate the statehouse electrical system. A Topeka contractor offered to do the job for just $49,664.

TALE OF TAILS

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP) —Less than four hours after John Foster reported to police that dogs had bitten off his cow's tail, Fred Scheller reported that an automobile had run over and cut off his dog's tail.

The largest Junior Fair in history will feature four big days of activities planned for this year's Marion County Fair by the Junior Fair Board members.

A record number of booths and floats have been entered. There will be at least 53 booths and 29 floats.

On Monday afternoon, the tractor operator's contest at 1:30 p.m. and the style review at 2 p.m. will take the spotlight.

A greatly enlarged demonstration program by the boys and girls is scheduled for Tuesday, with the boys demonstrating "how-to-do-it" projects at 9 a.m., and the girls at 1:30 p.m. Also at 1:30 p.m. will be the Junior Fair Livestock judging contest.

At 8 p.m. on Tuesday will be the dairy, beef, swine, sheep and poultry showmanship contests in the Coliseum.

At 1 p.m., judging will be conducted for beef in the Coliseum and for swine in the Junior Fair building.

Evening activities will begin at 7 p.m. with a Junior Fair livestock parade, tractor safety demonstration at 8 p.m., and presentation of awards at 9 p.m., all in the Coliseum.

The float judging is scheduled for 11 a.m. Thursday, with the floats participating in the senior fair parade at 1 p.m. After this parade, the Junior Fair floats will parade in downtown Marion.

College Group Sets Fruit Tree Studies

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UP) — Michigan State College horticulture experts are using metallurgy techniques to check the plant food diets of fruit trees.

Dr. H. B. Tukey, head of MSC's horticulture department, said leaves of trees are photographed in a giant machine—the spectrograph — which is used in metallurgy and industrial work.

The photographs actually show the amount of certain plant foods in the leaves to see whether the tree takes up the fertility available in the soil, Tukey said.

The program, still in the experimental stages, is directed by MSC's Dr. A. I. Kenworthy, who tests tree leaves for nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, and other plant foods.

Kenworthy scores the results on a nutrient-element balance chart, which looks like an ordinary bullseye, and returns the chart to the fruit grower with a letter suggesting changes in the fertilizer program. At present, the service is availabe only to commercial growers.

Many Women's Exhibits Slated

Domestic Department Adds Two New Classes

A wide array of women's interests will be displayed in the domestic department of the 1955 Marion County Fair. Under the leadership of Mrs. Lawrence Kline, the department is sub-divided in five general divisions, with 26 classes.

Classes in the food division include jelly, preserves, jam, canned fruits and vegetables, butter and baked goods. Needlework divisions include quilts, coverlets, rugs, crochet work, knitting, embroidery, Swedish embroidery, needlepoint, machine-made garment, and infant department.

Two new classifications this year in the domestic department are art work and rejuvenating furniture. In the art work group are included basketry, aluminum tray etching, fabric lamp shades and textile painting. In the second group are reupholstering and refinishing smaller articles of furniture.

County home demonstration units had these groups as their projects during the last year.

In the flower division, exhibitors may choose from these classes: individual specimens, artistic arrangement for special placement, artistic arrangement for flowers, fruits and vegetables, and arrangements with no restrictions as to material or container.

Mrs. Kline pointed out that there are several changes in exhibit classifications and premium lists this year from previous years.

Entries will be exhibited in the Art hall.

Putting up new farm buildings can be very expensive and time-consuming these days.

For many farmers the solution lies in an efficient, easily-constructed pole barn, built around poles set directly in the ground.

Naturally these poles, and other wood near the ground must be well protected against insects and decay. That's why it's standard practice to assure long life and lasting strength by using only Baker pressure-creosoted poles.

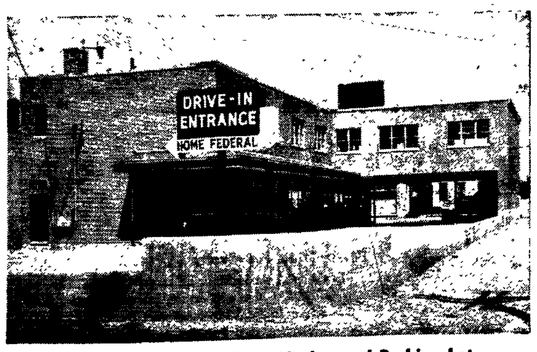
Assets Doubled in Last 5 Years, Now Almost $9,000,000

Our modern, air-conditioned home with drive-thru window and parking lot, 137 S. Prospect St.

The Fair offers an opportunity to illustrate local achievements, principally in farming but in many other endeavors. It is a time for comparison . . . to determine what methods will obtain best results . . . to learn what and how others are doing. We urge everyone to attend the Marion County Fair — make it YOUR fair for the mutual benefit of all so that it will grow and prosper.

The formula we follow, and recommend to our members, in building up assets is quite simple. It consists of living within income and keeping the savings safely and profitably invested. During recent prosperous years neither has been difficult and, at present, our assets are at their highest total.

We are glad to say this fact applies also to many of our members and invite everyone who will to join us.



Approach to Drive-Thru Window and Parking Lot

Save time looking for a place to park by driving alongside our building to window. Enter via alley south of building, from W. Church St. or W. Center St. and exit into S. Prospect St. If business brings you inside, use parking space provided for our customers inside of lot.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

How To Cast Out Fear

Not long ago, on the West coast, I met a soldier with whom I had corresponded when he was in Korea. He's not the kind of boy whom you would think of as engaging in regular correspondence with a minister. As a matter of fact, he's a little on the rough side — but he's very real and there's no nonsense about him. I like him tremendously.

DR. PEALE

I first heard from him after someone had sent him some of my columns. He wrote me that he'd read them. He said there wasn't much else around to read; so he had made a thorough study of those columns. In one of them the point was made that God can be with you at all times, right by your side. He'd been brought up as a churchgoer, but he couldn't really believe anything as "preposterous" as the notion that God could be right beside him or anyone else.

Then, one night, he was in the lines and assigned to a lonely guard outpost, only yards from the enemy outposts. "Frankly," he told me, "I was scared to death. I was cold and couldn't get warm. I was filled with fear. The next man was quite a distance from me and I couldn't talk to him. I couldn't even smoke. And then I happened to think about the idea of God's presence with a human being. So I thought I'd practice your suggestion and see if there was anything to it."

"SO I TALKED to the Lord and said, 'Can it be true that You can be with anybody, really with them, just like another man from my outfit here by my side'? I stood there and talked with the Lord. I didn't actually pray. I just talked to God like he was in that foxhole with me.

"What do you know? All of a sudden, right there, in that cold, inky black night, I felt Him. It was just as though there was another human being with me. I could almost touch Him. And from that minute on, I felt peaceful and not nearly so scared and lonely."

It was two years after this that I saw him and I asked, "Do you still feel the Presence"?

"Not all the time," he answered, "but I know how to feel Him. I just forget everything else and tell Him that I need Him. I admit to Him how bad I am, and how much better I want to be. I just ask Him to come and be with me, and then I know He is with me."

Here was a big, tough young man. But I could see a light shining in his eyes I knew that what he had experienced about God could keep him forever master of his fears.

THE LATE Ernie Pyle, that great war correspondent, told the story of how, in World War II, a storm perilled the assault landing at Salerno, Italy. The flagship's chaplain asked permission to lead the men in a prayer that God be with them to still the waves. The commanding officer smiled indulgently, but gave permission. The men prayed and, at zero hour, the storm subsided and the landing was made successfully. There was no doubt in the minds of those men that God had been beside them that night. And who can say that He wasn't?

The greatest of all antidotes for fear is the faith that God is with you wherever you go and whatever you do. That promise is spelled out clearly in the Bible and you can read it for yourself in the Book of Isaiah: "Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of My righteousness."

Men in every generation have been made courageous over their fears by faith in the Presence.

Undesirable Wheat Varieties Won't Get Top Support Price

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced Friday that wheat of 23 designated "undesirable" varieties, grown next year, will be docked 20 cents a bushel under the grower price support program.

Next year's crop will be supported at a national average of not less than $1.81 a bushel.

The discount will be applied to varieties which the department said are of inferior milling or baking qualities. The total production of these varieties last year was about 31 million bushels out of a crop of 969 million bushels or about 3 per cent of the production. A total of about 200 varieties are grown commercially.

The purpose of announcing deductions, the department said, is to encourage farmers to produce better wheat. Officials have said quantities of varieties designated undesirable have accumulated into huge government surplus stocks because of no satisfactory market.

Most of the so-called undesirable varieties are planted to meet specific production problems, such as drought, rust resistance, early maturity, and adaptation to modern harvesting methods but, the department said, they have proved to be undesirable for commercial food use.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (UP) — Four city councilmen here receive salaries 2½ times those of four other councilmen. The legislature authorized a $500 a year salary for councilmen but it didn't apply to those already serving terms.

So the veterans must be content with $200 a year until, and if, they are re-elected in one year.

NEW WURLITZER ELECTRONIC PIANO
NOW AT SHELLHORN'S

A new concept in piano design and tone has recently been developed by The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, world's largest producer of pianos. It is a portable electronic piano. The 64-note key and action mechanism is similar to that used in a conventional piano, but it has neither strings nor sounding board. The tone is produced mechanically and amplified electronically. Just plug the extension cord into any 110 volt, AC outlet . . . and it's ready to play!

The new instrument weighs approximately 70 pounds and is built into a durable, pebblac-finished carrying case which will fit comfortably in the back of any car for easy transporting. Set up on its attractive table for playing, the Wurlitzer Electronic Piano requires no more floor space than a small writing desk.

And here's another novel and remarkable feature that will suggest many educational uses . . . it can be played with earphones! When the earphones are plugged into the unit, the keyboard becomes silent and only the performer can hear it. He can play or practice for hours, any time of the day or night, without disturbing others in the house. Yet, when the earphones are removed, the instrument again becomes a full-toned piano.

The new Wurlitzer Electronic Piano will make it possible for many thousands of people, with limited room space, to now enjoy piano music in their homes. For example, those living in small apartments, hotel rooms or trailer homes. Others may want it for the children's room or for the recreation room.

The fact that the tone volume can be controlled, or if need be earphones can be used to silence it, will appeal to those living in thin-walled double houses.

Shellhorn's Music Store has now received an initial shipment of the new instruments, and all who appreciate fine musical instruments are cordially invited to come in to see and hear the new Wurlitzer Electronic Piano.

A 'Convertible' Garage Being Placed on Market

DETROIT (UP) — A new "convertible" garage has been put on the market for motorists who want protection for their cars but can't afford or can't get regular garage space.

The "convertible garage," made out of a plastic-coated nylon, consists of the fabric and a folding multiple - spring tubular steel frame which is held archlike by two center posts driven into the ground.

A motorist merely drives under the arch, stops the car and pulls the hood down over the front and back of the car. The garage weighs 87 pounds and folds into a neat package.

RABBIT HAZARD

THO[illegible]VILLE, Conn. (UP) — Neil Tamguay was riding home from work with three fellow employes when a rabbit leaped through their car window and knocked him unconscious. The rabbit was killed instantly.

Homing Pigeon Strays From Course of Flight

MEDFORD, Ore. (UP) — Here's one homing pigeon that apparently found other fields to investigate.

The pigeon was found at Camp White here and turned over to a deputy sheriff. The American Union in New Jersey was contacted and the number on the pigeon's leg furnished.

It was found that the pigeon was registered with the federal government as an Army reserve bird. The owner's name was furnished.

The owner turned out to be Bob Ebbesen of Grants Pass, Ore., which is only 30 miles away.

The mystery is what the pigeon was doing in the nearly four weeks that elapsed between the time it left home for the 30-miles trip and the time it was found

Pinball Machines Studied by Class

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Pinball game mechanisms are going to liven an electrical engineering course at the University of Pittsburgh next fall.

Up to now, servomechanism and control systems—that's the science which deals with automation—has been a dry lecture course.

But a donation to the university of 14 confiscated pinball machines from Allegheny County detectives influenced teaching methods of engineering professors.

The machines have been stripped down by students who salvaged their complex electrical devices which ring up tallies and tilts.

Electric motors, relays and gears will help operate electronic laboratory equipment in Pitt's new million-dollar engineering building scheduled to be in use for the fall semester.

Electrical engineering students will use the equipment to get practical instruction in automation.

When the steel ball games were brought in after being seized in a raid, some of the prospective engineers proved what detectives had suspected right along — that the machines were the sucker type

High scoring circuits had been taped off. The player could stack up only a minimum score, usually just enough to make him want to put another nickel in

Chef in Michigan Blasts U.S. Men's Food Habits

JACKSON, Mich. (UP) — Mark Grammas, a chef since 1917, says men are in a rut as far as eating is concerned—eggs for breakfast, sandwiches for lunch, steak for dinner.

Grammas, chef at the Hotel Hayes here since 1945, said men much more than women are afraid to try chef's specialties for fear they will not like them.

Men sometimes try to show their culinary knowledge by asking to be allowed to select their own steaks, he said, and more often than not "they will select inferior meat."

Grammas added that guests from the East know much more about food than those from the Middle West; guests from the East are not afraid to order specialties, those from the West know and seem to care the least about food.

Concessions Head

Don H. Clements

In handling the concessions department of the fair, Don H. Clements works as a co-chairman with William H. Guy, who also is in charge of the machinery division displays. From Montgomery Township, Clements' term as a director will expire next year.

Fair Planning Responsibility of Managers' Board

Organization's Members Chosen by Vote, Serve Three-Year Terms

Planning the operation of the Marion County Fair each year is the duty of the board of managers of the Marion County Agricultural Society.

These men, responsible for the successful operation of the fair, are elected by members of the Agricultural Association for three-year terms.

EIGHTEEN members are chosen to be on the board of managers, six being elected every year.

Any person in the county over 16 years of age may become a member of the society by purchase of a membership in the organization. Final date for purchase of membership is the last day of the fair each year.

Election of the managers, or directors, is held on the first Saturday of December. Only members of the society 21 years old or older are eligible to vote for managers.

After election, the managers hold an organizational meeting at which they elect officers for the year.

This year the officers are Gomer Johnson of Bowling Green Township, president; G. R. Baldinger of Tully Township, vice president; Victor H. Kreis of Richland Township, treasurer; and W. M. Haley of near Marion, secretary.

The president, vice president and treasurer must be chosen from the ranks of the managers, but the secretary may be any member of the society.

THE PRESIDENT appoints the superintendents of the various committees and the executive committee members. The president is chairman of the executive committee, according to the constitution of the society. Other members of that committee this year are Frank Foster and Clyde Hinamon.

The president also has the job of appointing the auditing committee. This group audits all books of the society and makes reports according to the rules of the State Board of Agriculture governing county fairs.

The executive committee's duties are to direct the secretary in the purchase of advertising, supplies and other materials; to make preliminary arrangements for the holding of each year's fair; to transact business in the absence of the full board of managers, and to perform any other duties assigned it by the board of managers.

Each township in the county is eligible to elect one director except Marion Township, which elects four directors.

Directors whose terms will expire this year are Harry Laucher of Pleasant Township, H. L. Beaver of Green Camp Township, Clyde W. Hinamon of Grand Prairie Township, Oscar Murphy of Salt Rock Township, Gomer Johnson of Bowling Green Township and William H. Guy of Marion township.

Members whose terms will expire in 1957 are William Earl of Claridon township, Frank Burkey of Grand Township, Frank M. Foster of Marion Township, S. P. Lauer Sr. of Prospect Township, G. R. Baldinger of Tully Township and Joe Vogel of Scott Township.

While the managers and executive committeemen are charged with the responsibility of making preliminary arrangements for the fair each year, it is up to the superintendents of departments to see that their departments run smoothly. Most of the departments have superintendents who are on the board of managers, but not all.

Guy and Clements head the concessions department this year. Mrs. Lawrence Kline of Marion is superintendent of the fine arts division. Guy also handles the machinery department, while Burkey and Beaver are heads of the Grange and vegetables department. Ed Bender is superintendent of the poultry section and Earl is in charge of the dairy cattle department.

Murphy heads the beef department and the chairman of the swine department is Laucher. Baldinger is the sheep department chairman while Fogle and Augenstine head the Junior Fair department. In charge of the grand stand program are Hinamon and Lauer, while Foster and McNamara are superintendents of the speed department which is in charge of the racing program. Vogel is superintendent of the 4-H department.

The superintendents serve one-year terms, but are frequently reappointed at the end of the year by the president.

Abandoned Safe Proves To Be Disappointment

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (UP)—It seems that sometime before the turn of the century a Schenectady man had a disposal problem.

He had a heavy iron safe he wanted to be rid of, and his solution was to cut a hole in his floor and lower the safe out of sight. There is remained — forgotten — until workmen demolishing the house uncovered it recently. The workmen watched with bated breath—along with neighbors and property owners—while its door were forced open with a crow bar.

But the safe yielded nothing in treasure or relics of the past.

About 7,500 Americans die by homicide in an average year.

FAIR WEEK EDITION

Waldo Supply
CHECKERBOARD NEWS
by Leon McCorkle
Waldo Supply Co.

Purina Says
"Welcome to the FAIR!"

Fair time is always a special time for us farm folks. It's a chance to show a little of the results of a year of hard work. The kids, women folk and we men too, all like to get a pat on the back occasionally, and Fair Week is a pretty good way of getting it. Sound management, wise feeding and careful sanitation pay off in BIG Dividends. All of us here at Purina Headquarters in WALDO are trained especially to serve the folks in this community. Stop in and see us any time, we'll be glad to see you!

OPERATION PORK CHOP!!

Did you notice in this column a couple of weeks ago about young Darrell Gerfen of Rt. 2 Prospect? He has reported a 56-day gain of .75 lb. per day! Makes us hungry just thinking of all those Pork Chops. Young Darrell is a Purina Man all the way. His dad, Franklin Gerfen reports raising 11 orphaned pigs from 8 days exclusively on Baby Pig Chow. Raised all 11 of them, too! Out of a start of 9 sows this year he has marketed 84 head of swine. Not Bad! Good Management and Feeding Pay!!

Purina Fly Bait, Works Like Magic

Already it's going like wildfire. Purina Fly Bait is knocking flies dead all over this section of the country. You just scatter it. Purina Fly Bait attracts the flies—then knocks 'em cold while you watch. It works just that fast . . . and it keeps on killing for several weeks.

Purina Fly Bait works in dairy barns, poultry houses, stables, dog kennels, feed rooms, barns and even outdoor areas. Try it yourself. Take some home with you today.

STORY OF A PURINA FARM SOW

Just a few hours ago this sow farrowed 11 husky pigs weighing 2½-3 lbs. each. And because she was conditioned on the Purina Program, her udder is full of milk to get the pigs off to a fast start . . . carry them through to weaning.

She used the raw materials fed during gestation and produced a fine finished product . . . a vigorous litter. If her feed had not provided the needed raw materials during gestation, chances are she would not have produced this big litter. Resorbed embryos, runts and dead pigs would have resulted, if her ration had not been "right."

If you are not satisfied with the job your sows are doing, let us explain the Purina Feeding Program. It builds sows and baby pigs.

Good Pasture Management Pays Big Dividends

Regardless of the care you may give your pasture program, you know that grasses are past their prime at this time of year. But, there are several things you can do to hold production and cow condition.

Pipe water to the cows, if no natural springs or sources are near. Plenty of pure water conveniently located will make cows give lots more milk, tests have shown.

Spray cows weekly with Purina Dairy Spray Concentrate mixed with water. This will give cows relief from flies and permit better use of pasture.

Rotate pastures. Even though you are on the short side for pasture, it will pay to divide fields to "rest" the plants. This helps avoid killing out.

Mow pastures as soon as they begin to get rank so tender new shoots can come on.

Try to get shade in pasture. This gives cows an opportunity to reduce body temperature on hot days.

Bulky-Las fed a gallon per head per feeding helps hold cow condition and milk production. Try it for just 30 days and see.

HEALTH HINT

Check Picking and Cannibalism with Purina CHEK-PICK

Developed by Purina Research, this new product helps you control cannibalism and feather-picking. Just daub it on pecked places. Birds don't like it and stop picking.

"FREE AND CLEAR"

THESE ARE wonderful words—"free and clear." If your farm is free and clear, you can stand in the doorway of your home, look across the fields and say to your family: "No matter what happens here is something to tie to." You can say to yourself: "When the farm work gets too heavy, here is something to depend on."

This is the sort of thing which life insurance helps to bring about—to guarantee that the farm will be free and clear. There are many ways to go about setting up this sort of guarantee. At your convenience we would like to tell you about them. Just drop a note or call us on the telephone.

Researchers Not Always Ivory Tower Residents

CHICAGO (UP) — Researchers are not always cloistered in ivy towers, according to Dr. Warren C. Lathrop. Freqeuently they are in constant touch with sales and production, he said.

Lathrop discussed common errors in dealings with research personnel at the annual meeting of the American Institute of Chemists.

If the researcher feels that he is considered a dull bookworm with a conceited opinion of his own infallibility, he is likely to remain withdrawn, Lathrop said.

But if he is treated like one of the boys, he will be more valuable to his firm.

INTERPRETER NEEDED

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Roy Masters, an English diamond cutter reports he had language difficulty when he reached the United States. In London, they call the subway the underground. When he reached New York, whenever he asked how to get underground, the answer always was, "Drop dead!"

Children Should Hear Truth About Hospitals

URBANA, Ill. (UP) — Don't fib to Johnny when he must go to the hospital, a child development specialist advises.

Tell him the truth, said Mrs. Millicent Martin of the University of Illinois, and he'll probably take it well.

"You should tell him the truth about where he is going and how long he will be there," Mrs. Martin said. "Never take him to the hospital under false pretenses." A few days' notice is enough for a young child, she said, but an older child should be told a week or two in advance.

If he asks about pain, be frank and tell him it will hurt, Mrs. Martin advised, but don't emphasize the details. If he must have his tonsils removed, for example, tell him his throat will be sore for a while.

Patient waiting is often the highest way of doing God's will. — Jeremy Collier

Board Reports '54 Fair Failed To Make Profit

Went in Hole $2,745; Junior Fair Building Cost Total of $10,487

Fair Board officials this year are hoping to do a little better financially than they did last year. The 1954 operations resulted in a loss of $2,745, according to the financial statement issued by the officers.

Receipts for the fair activities for the 1954 fair amounted to $42,681 including a balance from former years. Expenditures were $45,427.

Main item of expense last year was the erection of a new junior fair building and other permanent improvements which took $10,487.

Main Income

Main income was from the gate receipts which totalled $6,916. The county appropriated $5,000 for the 1954 operation.

This year, the appropriation was stepped up to $7,500 for the fair board itself and an additional $3,000 for the operation of the Coliseum.

One of the major sources of revenue for the fair is the concessions which brought in $6,773 last year. Automobile admissions brought in a little over $1,200, while the grandstand admission for special events provided $3,933.

Tents Cost $1,500

Tents which must be rented each year for housing animals cost the fair board over $1,500, while the special attractions charged $3,311.

Going into the fair last year, the board had a $4,000 balance. Receipts from the event amounted to $38,680, bringing the income to the $42,680 mark.

Victor Kreis, treasurer of the fair board, said the appropriations and other income since last year's fair have brought the cash on hand this year to around $11,000. However, he added, most of that will be spent by fair time in improvements to a dairy cattle shelter, a beef cattle barn and the inside railing on the race track.

Sugar Cane Process Undergoes Change

CHICAGO (UP) — The first basic change in the process of extracting sugar from sugar cane in more than a century has been announced.

The new process is described as continuous diffusion in which the cane is cut up into chips about the size of a half dollar. The chips are put into the bottom of a cylinder after they have been suspended in a portion of extracted juice.

A rotating spiral device forces the cane pieces toward the top, where hot water enters and dissolves the sugar in the cane. As the water moves down, it becomes more concentrated with sugar.

The syrup is drawn off from the bottom of the cylinder and processed in sugar refineries.

The new process differs from the current method in that sugar juice now is extracted from the cane by crushing the cane through a series of rollers under high pressure.

National Cylinder said that with the new process, an equal amount of cane can be processed more efficiently, in a fraction of the floor space and using a quarter of the power, than with the present method. It is estimated the innovation will cut production costs by more than half.

RING TREASURE

CARTHAGE, S. D. (UP) — Mrs. R. M. Brown dug up a gold ring while working in her garden. The ring had been lost 25 years ago by a neighbor, the late Mrs. Pat Finley.

Entertainment Offered All Six Nights of Fair

Persons attending the 1955 Marion County Fair will be offered various types of entertainment throughout the six nights of the fair.

Harness horse racing beginning at 8 p.m. each night is scheduled Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Four races are scheduled opening night and three will be held each of the next three evenings. A $500 purse is being offered to each race winner.

Saturday and Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., a festival of talent and twirling contest directed by Mrs. Dorothy Lovett of LaRue, director of the Ohio Amateur Talent Group, will be held in the Coliseum. Girls from 3 to 21 will come here from Ohio and nearby states as well as the county to compete in talent, twirling, strutting and beauty contests.

Two performances of an auto daredevil show will be given Sunday at 2 and 8 p.m. Taking part in the shows will be Dick Rodgers' All-American Motor Maniacs, Ward Beam's World Champion Auto Daredevils and Billy Green's Original Canadian Aces.

Entertainment Thursday during the final day of the fair will consist of an Ohio Western Horse Association show at 1 p.m. and two shows at 7 and 9 p.m. by the WLW-Television Midwestern Hayride group.

In the 10-point horse show, there are 11 separate classes. It is a new event at the local fair.

Also throughout the six days of the fair there will be rides and games along the midway for the fair-goers.

Low Protein Diet Won't Bar 'Shots' for Cholera

CHICAGO (UP) — Low protein rations fed to hogs will not prevent successful immunization against hog cholera, the American Veterinary Medical Association reported.

The AVMA said it had been widely believed that swine on a low protein ration were poor vaccination risks.

With increasing emphasis placed on the eradication of hog cholera, more investigations are planned by veterinary scientists to study factors believed to interfere with the development of solid immunity against hog cholera, the association said.

Mixed-Up Woman Finds Cars Similar, Not Same

BOSTON (UP) — Mrs. Dorothy Boardman deposited some bundles in her ranch wagon and went on to do some shopping.

When she returned the second time, there were no bundles in the ranch wagon. So she went back and bought duplicates, then started to drive home.

After going a few miles she discovered she wasn't in her own car. Returning to the parking lot, she located her ranch wagon, with the bundles intact.

We'll See You At The Fair . . . Bigger and Better Display Than Ever!

Horse Show

Sunday afternoon and evening in front of the grandstand. Shows are scheduled for 2 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The contests will pit the Dick Rodgers' All American Motor Maniacs against Ward Beam's World Champion Auto Daredevils and Billy Green's Original Canadian Aces.

On Thursday, the closing night of the fair, the WLW "Midwestern Hayride" show will be presented at the grandstand. The show will feature the cast from the television program seen each week in this area.

For the second year in a row, sheep exhibitors will have a special fat lamb class in the sheep division.

The show will be held in connection with the regular sheep judging to be held Monday. Lambs must be born after Jan. 1 this year in order to compete in the class, and entries are limited to two in each class per exhibitor. Lambs which are shown in the fat lamb group may not be shown in the breeding class.

ANOTHER FIRST in this year's fair is the rabbit show to be presented Saturday and Sunday by the Central Ohio Rabbit Breeders Association. A special tent will be set up on the midway for members of the club to exhibit their animals.

No judging will be done at the show, but club officials expect a large number of exhibitors showing the finest rabbits in this section of Ohio. The exhibition will be in addition to the regular rabbit judging contests in connection with the livestock judging.

For the first time in many years, four nights of harness racing will be held this year. Races are scheduled for Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The extra night of racing has been designed by fair officials to assure plenty of activities at the fairground.

This year a large display is planned by the Marion County Implement Dealers. To attract more attention, the display has been assigned a spot near the main gate of the fairgrounds and will be one of the first displays seen as the visitors enter the fairgrounds.

FAMILY TEAM

KOUTS, Ind. (UP) — Edward W. Rosenbaum and his sister, Mrs. Emil Pulaski, service Kouts' only two rural mail routes. They have a total of 82 years of service.

Youths, Advisers Plan Activities of Junior Fair Here

A group of 12 Junior Fair Board members, together with six associate members and four adult advisers, has the responsibility of planning the Junior Fair and seeing that activities during the fair run smoothly.

These Junior Fair Board members are elected from among exhibitors of the Junior Fair of the previous year, one from each school for a three-year term.

Board members make their plans for the fair during three regular meetings — in November, May and August. They are appointed to department heads for the Junior Fair and make necessary revisions in previous year's plans. These revisions and other recommendations are presented to the regular Fair Board for action.

Serving as officers of the 1955 Junior Fair Board are Richard Gix, president; Lynda Virden, vice president; Jeannie Parker, secretary; and Nancy Jo Ruth, assistant secretary.

Other board members are Max Brewer, Lois Lyons, George Yake, Robert Hill, Becky Converse, Jane Seiter and Gary Seiter. Associate members are Marjorie Lucas, John Burkhart, Janet Schwaderer, Jerry Higgins and Joyce Shoaf.

Advisers are Edwin Parrott, Mrs. Jane White, Earnest Gast and Mrs. Paul Rogers.

Dr Robert T. Gray, chairman of the council camping and activities committee, will be director of Region IV contingent activities at the training camp and at the Jamboree.

Itinerary of the Region IV group calls for a four-day preparatory camp at Manatoc; leaving Akron by train, for Detroit on Aug. 15; arriving in Detroit on the morning of Aug. 16th, they will travel by bus to Greenfield Village, the Ford Motor Co., General Motors, Art Center, Belle Isle, Windsor, Canada, downtwon Detroit and other spots of interest in and around Detroit; then by railroad to Toronto where they will stop and spend the night at the Ford Hotel.

On the 17th, they will leave Toronto via steamship for Niagara. Ten days will be spent at the Jamboree where they will camp with 10,000 Scouts from 26 different countries. They will leave the Jamboree and return to Camp Manatoc and home on Aug. 28.

The Jamboree gives American Scouts opportunity to become acquainted with Scouts from other countries; to eat their national dishes; demonstrate and exchange skills and ideas; and generally contribute to the "art of living together."

The Eighth World Jamboree is the first one to be held in the Western Hemisphere. Others have been held in: 1920 in London, England, 1924 in Copenhagen, Denmark, 1929 in Birkenhead, England, 1933 in Godollo, Hungary, 1937 in Vogelenzang, Holland, 1947 in Maisson, France, and 1951 in Bad Ischl, Austria.

Better Times Ahead for Dairy Farmers, Say Market Experts

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's dairy farmers, plagued the last three years by milk surpluses and rising costs, heard predictions of better days ahead yesterday from a group of milk marketing specialists.

The specialists, speaking at the 28th annual Ohio Dairy Day program here, said they expected the future to bring a leveling of production, increased consumption and higher prices paid to the dairyman.

They also warned that the trend toward bulk handling of milk may bring rough times for the inefficient dairy farmer and the small farm operator, regardless of efficiency.

Dr. Leland Spencer, professor of marketing at Cornell University, said it seems almost certain that bulk handling of milk from farms to plants "will continue to spread so that 10 years from now nearly all market milk may leave the farms in tanks."

"General adoption of this method will create hardships for many small producers," he said.

He advocated the following five-point program to increase milk consumption:

Keep retail prices low to avoid pricing out of the market "just as butter was," increase handlers' efficiency by time-cost studies of processing and delivery, introduce better merchandising methods, exploit the school milk program, and promote milk consumer education financed by producer and distributor.

Other speakers included Dr. Elmer Baumer of Ohio State University; Glen Wagner, manager of the Northwest Cooperative Sales Assn. of Toledo; Dr. R. Stanfield, executive secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau; and State Rep. Ralph Fisher of Wayne County.

HOW TALL THE TREES...
How tall the trees, and how straight the road. It cuts unswervingly through the countryside, and the trees border it like sentinels. Sentinels they have been too, walls of protection during the storm, blessed shade when the heat of the noonday sun is mercilessly strong.
As we go through life, it might be easier if our roads could be that straight. But so often they aren't. So often they are full of unexpected turnings. So often we're tempted to stray from them entirely.
But we, too, have a sentinel to protect us . . . in the Church. It is there to shelter us in storms, to shade us when we've erred.
The Church teaches mercy. It teaches compassion. It teaches forgiveness. We need the Church, and it is never too late to find it.
HOLY BIBLE
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

except Holstein cattle. All Holsteins will be judged in a special show at 7 p.m. Monday.

Tuesday will be the day for judging beef cattle and swine.

In the Junior Fair section, judging will be done Monday of booths, crops, shop and home economics food. A nutrition revue will be held at 10:30 a.m., a tractor operators contest will be held at 1:30 p.m. and a style revue will be held at 2 p.m.

Competing in the tractor operation contest will be Ted Uhl of New Bloomington and Harry Kramer, Kenneth Collmer and Howard Seckel, all of Claridon. They were selected for the fair contest in competition last Saturday.

Tuesday morning at 9 a.m., boys will give their demonstrations in a variety of subjects. Girls will have their opportunity to give demonstrations at 1:30 in the afternoon, which is also the time for the start of the junior livestock judging contest.

Showmanship Contests

Showmanship contests will be held in the Coliseum at 8 p.m. Tuesday for two divisions, junior and senior. Those under 14 on Aug. 23 will compete in the junior division, while those 14 or over will compete in the senior division. Also competing in the senior division will be any junior division winners of past years.

Wednesday will be the main day for most of the Junior Fair entrants. At 9 a.m., judging will start for sheep, dairy and poultry. Beef and swine judging will be held at 1 p.m. The junior fair livestock parade will be held in the Coliseum at 7 p.m. At 8, the tractor safety demonstration will be held in the Coliseum and will be followed at 9 by the presentation of awards.

Thursday will see the float judging and parade.

The Marion County Implement Dealers have planned a large display of the latest farm machinery. This year the display will be located at the south gate of the fairgrounds and will be one of the first displays seen upon entering the grounds.

Another display which is expected to draw much interest will be the display of rabbits by the Central Ohio Rabbit Breeders Association. A large tent will be erected on the grounds to house the animals.

Providing the rides on the Midway this year will be Howard Brothers. Games will be set up by Harry Deerwester of Lima.

A baton twirling contest and talent show will be held Saturday and Sunday in front of the grandstand, and is expected to draw entrants from all over Ohio as well as from other sections of the country.

Several additions to the buildings have been made during the last year. A new addition has been made on the junior fair beef barn, making it longer and installing a new roof.

A new shelter has also been erected for cattle between the cattle and sheep barns. A pole barn type of structure, the new building measures 50 by 100 feet and is open ended.

Improvements have also been made to the race track, with the construction of a new inside guard rail. The track itself has been top dressed and regraded for better running conditions.

Secretary Haley says the grounds are in excellent condition and ready for the influx of visitors to the fair.

The familiar array of attractions by local civic groups is also scheduled again this year, providing food, drinks and amusements.

Will Sell Memberships

Members of the Marion County Agricultural Association will be selling memberships in the association during the fair. Those persons desiring to vote for fair directors next year must purchase membership tickets before the closing day of the fair.

Haley said the fair this year is being designed to attract more entries by local farmers. There are several special awards in different categories designed to draw better animals into competition.

Granges in the county will again be featured this year. Judging of the exhibits will be done on Monday with a $65 top prize in store for the best display. Second prize will be $60, while $55 will go to the third place exhibit. All granges scoring 70 points or more in the judging will be awarded $45.

Juvenile granges will also have exhibits judged. Top prize among the younger members will be $25 for the best display. Second prize will be $20 and all the rest will each receive $15.

Domestic goods will have their share of the limelight again this year and will provide a special attraction for the women. There will be some 22 different categories under the domestic goods class, ranging from canned goods to floral displays.

In the livestock and poultry sections of the senior fair, there are a total of 543 classifications for the animals. There are 101 classes in the farm produce division this year and 149 sections in the domestic goods department.

There are now 13 education television stations in the United States.

Swine Department

Harry Laucher

Handling the swine department of the fair is Harry Laucher of Pleasant Township. Swine will be shown Tuesday, Aug. 23 at 9 a.m. and judge will be Dale Lewis of Tiffin.

Vol. 78, No. 218 MARION, OHIO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1955 SECTION B

Officials Predict Biggest, Best Fair Yet

Entries May Set New Record; Full Slate of Activities Scheduled

A bigger and better fair is promised this year for Marion County by fair officials. The 1955 fair will open Aug. 20 and last six days to Aug. 25.

More booths and exhibits and a larger number of entries are expected this year than in the past. With the deadline for entries today, William Haley, fair secretary, reports the entries may set a new record.

Junior Fair Improved

A larger and better Junior Fair section is also promised. This year 97 booths have been entered in the Junior Fair building by home economics, vocational - agriculture and 4-H groups. This is a new record.

Also setting a new record is the number of floats entered by 4-H clubs in the county-29. These floats will be judged in the morning of Aug. 25 and paraded at the the senior fair livestock.

Following the parade of the floats in front of the grandstand, they will be paraded through the downtown streets of Marion. The schedule calls for them to be in the downtown area about 2:30 p.m. Police have been notified and will block off traffic along the route of the parade.

The aim of the downtown parade is twofold—to promote interest in the fair and to give more persons an opportunity to see the handiwork of the young farmers.

Admission to the fairgrounds will be 50 cents with a 25 cent charge made for cars. Admission to the grandstands for special events will be 75 cents.

Patrol To Be on Duty

A police force will be on the grounds both day and night to see that laws of the state and rules of the fair are enforced and to handle parking facilities.

A full slate of activities is planned this year. There will be four nights of harness racing. Races will be held Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Eight races are on tap Saturday night and six races will be run the other three nights. Purses amounting to $6,500 are being offered.

A special attraction which is expected to draw a large crowd is the Ohio Western Horse Show scheduled to be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at the grandstand.

Wednesday will again be Junior Fair Day. This year all junior fair livestock will be judged on that day. In the past, junior fair livestock has been judged on the same days as the senior livestock.

A public church service will be held Sunday morning of fair week at 11 a.m.

Stock Judging Monday

Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. and Sunday evening at 8 p.m., an automobile thrill show will be held in front of the grandstand. This year three groups will compete against each other in stunt driving. The three groups are the Dick Rogers' All American Motor Maniacs, the Auto Daredevils and Billy Green's Canadian Aces.

Livestock judging in the senior division will begin Monday.

(Turn to PREDICTION, Page 38-B)

Getting Set for County Fair

Excellent Entertainment Slated

Horse Show, Auto Daredevil Contest, Harness Racing To Be Fair Features

For the first time this year, the Marion County Fair will feature a Western Horse Show. Sponsored by the Ohio Western Horsemen's Association, the show will be held in front of the Grandstand Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The show will have 11 classes and is expected to draw show horses from all over the state. Contributing to the caliber of horses expected in the show is the fact the Ohio State Fair horse show will be held the following day, and horses entered in the Marion event may go directly to Columbus without delay.

THE 11 CLASSES to be featured are: Western Parade, Western Spotted Horse, Western Pony, Western Plain Horse, Western Ladies, Western Palomino, Western Pony (48 inches and under), Western Single Hitch, Western Pleasure Horse, Western Stock Horse, and Western Horse Stake.

All first, second and third place winners in the Spotted Horse, Plain Horse and Palomino classes will enter the Horse Stake Class or forfeit their winnings.

Judge of the show will be Col. Leon Robinson of Dunkirk. Ringmaster will be Ray Retterer, while the show chairman is L. M. Wickersham.

Horses will be shown at a walk, trot and canter. Cash prizes and medals will be awarded winners of the show.

ANOTHER SPECIAL feature will be the Monday evening judging of the Holstein dairy cattle. This is the first time in the history of the fair that any dairy cattle judging is to be done in the evening.

The Ohio Holstein - Fresian Association has offered $50 in prizes to owners of top cows. Any resident of the county who has not won similar prizes at any other fair in the state is eligible for the awards.

A PRIZE OF $15 will be given the owner of the best four-year-old cow, and $10 will go to the owner of the second place cow in that class. Similar prizes will be awarded by the Ohio group to owners of cows in the three-year-old class.

The fair will match the state organization's prize with $50 which may be placed on any class of cow, while the Marion County Holstein Club is offering $75 in premiums for certain classes of Holsteins. That offer also will be matched by the fair officials.

Cattle must be registered with the Holstein-Fresian Association of America in order to be eligible for the special prizes.

(Turn to HORSE SHOW, Page 37-B)

Premium List

Night Show Of Holsteins Will Be Tried

New Arrangement Set Up in Bid To Attract Additional Spectators

A new idea in livestock judging, designed to help attract more spectators, will be tried at the Marion County Fair this year.

For the first time in the history of the fair, judging of Holsteins in the dairy cattle judging will be undertaken at 7 p.m. on Monday. This is an innovation from previous years when the Holsteins were judged during the day along with the other dairy cattle breeds.

Purpose of the time change is to give more persons an opportunity to observe the judging. Fair officials note there are a large number of Holstein's in Marion County and interest in them is high. But in former years attendance at the Holstein judging was restricted because judging of other dairy cattle was held at the same time, they explain.

Special Awards, Too

In addition to the special judging time, there will be special awards in the Holstein class. These awards will be in two special classes. One will be $15 to the owner of the first prize cow four years old or older and $10 to the owner of the second prize cow in this class. The same special awards will also be offered in the second class for three year old cows.

Cost of these prizes will be shared equally by the Ohio Holstein-Freisian Associati.n and the Marion County Fair.

There will also be special awards totaling $150 provided by the Marion County Holstein Association and the Marion County Fair. These will be for aged cow four years or older, cow three to four years; cow two to three years; pair of cows, four years or older; pair of cows, three to four; pair of cows, two to three; three generation group of two females and one male or three families; and cow with best udder. There will be four prize winners with the top prize $15, second prize of $10 and third and fourth prizes of $5 each in each class.

Other Dairy Judging

Other dairy cattle judging will be held on Monday also starting at 9 a.m. and will include three other breeds — Guernsey, Brown Swiss and Jersey. Regular prize lists for all four breeds will be in 17 different classes with first prizes starting at $9 and ranging down to $2 for some sixth, seventh and eighth places. Judge for all the dairy cattle will be Henry Conklin of Plain City. Dairy cattle department superintendent is William G. Earl.

Radioactive Fall-Out Is Another Hazard of Bomb

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Your main defenses against H-bomb radiocative fall-out are DSD—distance, shelter and decontamination.

With one or all, you can do much to protect yourself.

Fourth of a Series

Some fall-out atoms "die" very soon, others last for a longer time, some for years. The amount of radioactivity declines rapidly. Within a few hours, the total radioactivity is only a small fraction of the amount at the time the fall-out was created. But dangerous amounts can be distributed over a very large area by a truly big bomb.

SOME FALL-OUT atoms emit X-rays, others give off electrons or beta rays traveling only a short distance, but capable of causing burns, particularly if the atoms stick to the skin.

Efficient civil defense systems could predict where fall-out would go, tell how "hot" it is, advise people how long to stay in shelters, or whether it might be necessary to evacuate certain areas.

If you're caught in the open, put something, like a coat, over your head while you seek shelter, advises one atomic expert. Most fall-out atoms are dry and can be shaken out of clothing.

Several steps for decontamination have been suggested.

Rain, or water from a hose, can wash much of the fall-out from your roof. Drains where the water collected would have to be avoided.

BULLDOZERS COULD clear safe passages in cities, covering fall-out with uncontaminated earth, or creating dikes between which people could walk safely. The earthen dikes would absorb the radiation.

If drinking water is contaminated, one emergency measure for a few days would be to add a bit of clay to a bucket of water. The clay would precipitate most of the fall-out atoms, which are usually insoluble, to the bottom. Then the water could be boiled to kill germs.

Everyone hopes atomic war will never come. But if it should, knowledge of what to do-rather than ostrich-like complacency -could save a huge percentage of lives-maybe yours.

Youngsters Get Stuck In Climbing on Bridge

CLEVELAND (AP) — "'Tis mischief, not meanness," Mrs. James Grey explained to firemen who rescued her 12-year-old son, Robbie, from a high arch of the Fulton Parkway bridge yesterday.

For punishment, Mrs. Grey ordered Robbie to wash dishes for 30 days.

Robbie explained he was bicycling in the park to celebrate the end of a previous one-week dishwashing sentence, and decided to climb the 100-foot high bridge arch. "I got stuck," he said.

Undertow Pulls Woman And Girl to Their Deaths

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — An undertow caught a 33-year-old woman and an 11-year-old girl and drowned them in Lake Erie yesterday while the woman's two small daughters splashed in the water near the shore.

Mrs. Eunice Walker and Patricia O'Donnell from the same Wickliffe neighborhood, were about 1,000 feet from shore when the undertow sucked them under. Other swimmers, including some youngsters from a summer camp, tried in vain to save them.

Mrs. Walker's daughters, Paulette, 7, and Cheri, 6, saw their mother go under the waves.

Attacker of 2 Hunted

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—Police hunted today for a young man who raped a 4-year-old girl and beat up a 60-year-old woman who attempted to protect the child. The double attack occurred yesterday at a home near Williamsburg.

Stock Split Voted

CLEVELAND (AP)—Directors of Valley Mould & Iron Co. of Hubbard, Ohio, yesterday approved a plan to split the firm's common stock, two shares for one. The proposal will be submitted to stockholders for a vote later. In the over-the-counter market here yesterday, $51 a share was bid for the company's stock.

Man Can't Swim So He Walks Out of the River

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A 51-year-old laborer who can't swim fell into the Arkansas River and escaped by walking 25 feet underwater to the bank Friday.

Lormie Walker was working on a dredge boat when a loose cable knocked him into the river. He sank 18 feet to the bottom.

"We thought he'd never come up," said Scott Wilson, operator of the boat. Wilson estimated that it took Walker two minutes to walk to the shore.

Walker was winded, but unhurt. After resting a few minutes, he returned to work.

Woman Fatally Injured

LIGONIER, Pa., (AP)—Mrs. Olive Alexander, 62, of East Liverpool, Ohio was fatally injured yesterday in a car-truck collision near here. Her husband, John, 70, driver of the car, was reported in serious condition.

Where Diplomacy Begins

A policy of co-existence, if that is what more cordial relations with the Soviet Union, the Chinese People's Republic and the satellite governments of Marixan absolutism are leading to, gives a stellar role to the diplomats.

Co-existence has always been the ultimate aim of the diplomatic art, which failed when it seemed necessary or desirable to rely on militarists to deal with the consequences of diplomatic failure.

Co-existence, in turn, always has been based on the realities of existence rather than ideals of behavior. Nations have co-existed because they needed one another's help.

The Soviet Union and the Chinese People's Republic — the twin bastions of the Communist conspiracy — need help in their programs to develop industrialism. They also need food and will need it in increasing amounts as they move forward with industrialism.

What does the United States need?

Principally, it needs consumers of food to absorb its unwieldy surpluses. It needs to get rid of vast stores of surplus commodities owned outright by the government. If it could get anything at all for these in trade, it would be better off than it would be while holding surplus commodities in dead storage.

There is more to co-existence then idealism. The United States is exploring the possibilities of a mutual advantageous deal — the place where successful diplomacy begins.

Last Hours for Two Soldiers

No tale of brutality that has come out of the Korean War can exceed the account of the last hours of two U.S. soldiers in a North Korean prison camp who were thrown out of a hut by another U.S. soldier now being tried in a court-martial on charges of murder and collaboration with the enemy.

The witnesses for the prosecution have provided the details of the account.

Both men were sick with malnutrition and dysentery, as were the other occupants of the hut, with a few exceptions. One of the exceptions was the soldier charged with their murder. The sick men did not dare to affront him. Those who stayed inside the hut were afraid they, too, might be thrown outside.

The temperature was 40 below zero. The men lacked clothing to survive, even had they been healthy. They lacked strength to get back into the hut. There was nothing for them to do but yield to the numbing cold and die. Their lives had been spared by a brutal and ruthless enemy, but it was their wartime fate to encounter even greater brutality and ruthlessness at the hands of one of their own companions.

Among all the reasons there are for abhorring war, none is more compelling than the provocation it gives to savages to release their savagery against the weak and helpless, whoever they are and wherever they may be.

Next Year's Campaign

It is being pointed out by those who have an eye on the future that on Aug. 13, 1956, the Democratic national convention will convene. The following Monday morning, Aug. 20, the Republicans will begin their convention.

The change to the August date from the traditional July date was prompted by belief in both parties that long campaigns had been made both unnecessary and prohibitively costly by television. But whether later conventions will mean shorter campaigns remains to be seen.

When conventions were held in July, the campaigns began on or about Labor Day. Conventions in the later half of August may postpone the opening of campaigns until as late as mid-September provided there is no way of knowing in advance who will get the nominations. But otherwise, the effect of putting off the conventions until August may be only to shorten the preparation time between the end of the convention and the beginning of the campaign. The effect might be even less than that.

It will be known well ahead of convention time next year whether or not President Eisenhower will be a two-term candidate. If he consents to run again, and it appears that Adlai Stevenson again will be drafted to run against him, it is hard to imagine the politicos holding off the beginning of the 1956 campaign. They would start the campaign before the conventions, in that event.

Test of U.S. Ingenuity

"Made-in-Germany" products missing from the shelves of U.S. stores since World War II will soon be flooding the American market again.

German inventors hoarded their discoveries after the war because they had no patent protection. Now they are unleasing a galaxy of new gadgets aimed for the export drive and at the U.S. housewife.

Among the current gadget inventions are individual squirt-proof lemon squeezer and a scoop for handling the slippery strings of spaghetti and noodles. There is also a peeler for citrus fruits which can be used for making fruit salads or decorative strips of orange, lemon or grapefruit peel.

American manufacturers are alert to this new source of competition and are taxing their ingenuity for ways to meet it, both price and quality-wise.

The Scorners Are Few

By EUGENE CARR

A recent nationwide survey discloses that almost everyone in this country has faith in a Supreme Being.

But, the figure does not quite reach 100 per cent. There are some who say, "No! I do not believe in God!"

What about these avowed disbelievers? How firm is their conviction? What is their attitude toward those who do believe? Do they look with contempt upon the man and woman of faith?

In the first place, they are few in number, and it isn't likely you would knowingly come in contact with one of them at any time. They represent an extremely small percentage of the total population

Secondly, the degree of their disbelief varies widely, and they have no one consistent reason for feeling as they do.

SOME ARE CYNICAL, due usually to a personal disappointment or a frustrated ambition. Some are merely confused; they aren't sure just what they do believe. Others actually feel the need for a religious faith, but haven't found the answers to questions that trouble them. Most are not deep-rooted disbelievers at all.

Only occasionally does a confirmed atheist come along — one who unalterably denies the existence of God, is willing to say so openly and goes so far as to be critical of those who give evidence of their faith.

Even then, the criticism that comes from such a person seldom takes the form of outright ridicule. Mostly, it is expressed in an attitude of indifference or doubt as to the wisdom of those to whom it is directed.

Such a critic was heard to say one day, "I do not understand how any intelligent man or woman can become so sold on the idea of God or what is referred to as a Supreme Being'"

Without meaning to do so, the critic in question paid a very fine compliment to those he was criticizing.

He admitted there are millions of men and women who understand something he does not understand. He gave recognition to the fact they are really sold on their religious beliefs. And, he acknowledged the compatible relationship that can exist between a man's mind and a man's spirit.

Remember, he said, "I do not understand how any intelligent man or woman can become so sold —."

Such criticism need never embarrass the person who makes a sincere effort to live his religion on an everyday basis. Such an argument won't stand up against the example of a truly good life.

THE FEW AMONG us who see no need for God, present an ineffective case because they offer nothing in turn They would leave a vacuum in the place God now fills.

In the final analysis, the scorners are few. Most of them lack the courage to support their convictions. Rather, they take cover behind such elusive phrases as "intellectual determination," "self-containment" or "enlightened area of understanding."

The important thing to bear in mind is that we do not meet with 100 per cent approval on the part of others in anything we do with our lives. But, in the great game of witnessing to your religious faith among your fellow men, you'll have a better average of success than in anything else you do.

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dear Nephew: You wanted my comments on the article about taking it easy so you will live longer. I will say without hesitation it is 80 per cent hooey. The other 20 per cent might be true in a few cases.

This is no reflection on the magazine that printed the article. I am sure "Changing Times" is trying to be reliable.

The trouble is that articles like these are built on ex post facto reasoning. So-and-so lived to be 90 because he never let annoyances get him down, kept his eye bright and his tail bushy until the end and stuck to the simplicities. Therefore, since it worked for so-and-so the thing for you to do if you want to live to be 90 is to keep your eye bright and your tail bushy and never let anything get you down.

This makes as much sense as to say that if you want to live as long as an elephant you should be an elephant.

Aside from tricks we have learned about pills and surgery, the only way to live a long time is to be born into a long-lived family. My people always have kept on living until everybody was tired of them.

The best way to keep from being annoyed is to be born with the disposition that is not vulnerable to annoyances. Take your aunt's disposition. I have seen her keep cool through a series of annoyances that would have put me through the roof, not because she was a long-suffering martyr but because she doesn't get annoyed. She is as placid as a May apple.

Me, I have a temper like a copperhead. I boil over as regularly as Old Faithful. If rancor and bile could shorten a man's life, I never would have reached 21. But here I am, a candidate for the oldest human being still living—one of millions of cantankerous old cusses who disprove the theory that the way to live long and like it is to be a May apple instead of a copperhead.

As for the bright eye and the bushy tail, that is nonsense too. People with those accessories will have more fun, I grant you, and they will live until they die, instead of becoming zombies. But some of the most venerable characters I have known had limp tails and dull eyes from the time they were 30 until they were pronounced dead from a complication of diseases, including pernicious dullness.

It would be a better world if everybody were tolerant, jolly, generous, forgiving, sure of himself, unafraid, happy with his lot and bubbling over with zest for living. But I have seen too much to believe these are the secret to longevity.

The secret is to keep breathing. There also is a secret within the secret. The inside secret is to have longevity built into you. The ordinary automobile is built to run upward of 90,000 miles, although the manufacturers know how to make 'em to run a million miles. Don't bet on a 90,000-miler to go a million.

There are people who couldn't kill themselves prematurely unless they used direct action. Then there are people who get so tied in knots by everything that happens they probably will die before their time But with rare exceptions, they can no more help doing this than they can help not being elephants.

Regards to all, and I am sorry I did not care for the article on how to live a long time I have lived too long a time to be fooled by formulas.

Never had one

Talbott's Costly Little Mistake

By David Lawrence

They blew taps on Harold Talbott's service as secretary of the Air Force—and the secretary of Defense pinned a medal on him for his outstanding performance as a public official. But that didn't erase the stigma he will carry for life—the stigma of a cruel system of politics which crucifies a man forever because he makes a single mistake in judgment.

Lawrence

Harold Talbott was a remarkably good secretary of the Air Force but a poor politician. He worked day and night in the interests of the enlisted men and did many things for which he will long be remembered by the airmen of America. But among other things he was careless in the use of office stationery—as happens every day in every business when employes write personal communications about personal affairs on office letterheads.

It doesn't seem to matter that Talbott wrote to persons who knew him in business many years before or that he told a Senate committee when it originally recommended confirmation to the Senate that he would retain a business connection with a firm of efficiency experts.

It doesn't seem to matter that the engineering firm of which he remained a partner saved companies a lot of money by its methods and indirectly saved the government money on its "cost plus" contracts—something that caused Talbott to be overenthusiastic perhaps about mentioning it to his old friends.

IF HE HAD held stock in a drug company that had a cure for polio or something, he mustn't recommend it to his friends or let the Army and Navy know about it. That would be a "conflict of interest" modern style

Yet, when all is said and done, it was a mistake in judgment and could be exaggerated on the stump. So, as President Eisenhower phrased it, Talbott was right "under the circumstances" in submitting his resignation.

What this means is that, even though there was no illegality or fraud, the continuance of Talbott in office would have been a basis for political attack on the administration and hence there was only one thing for him to do—to resign.

It is interesting to note the condemnation which swept over Talbott like a tidal wave. It came from the "right" and the "left." The "right" saw danger to the administration politically. The "left" saw a chance to bite back because of the improprieties charged to Truman officials in the last administration.

IT'S TOO BAD in a way that the error in judgment made by Talbott wasn't in some way related to communism or being a member of a Communist-front organization. Then he might have won widespread sympathy from the "left wing,' 'and it would have been averred that just for one single mistake in judgment he shouldn't be pilloried by his fellow men for the rest of his life. Some foundation might even have paid for a film to exploit his biography among the colleges.

In The Baltimore Sun the other day, C. P. Ives, who writes a signed article regularly on the editorial page, says that, while it would be unfair in a sense to make any comparisons between Oppenheimer and Talbott because they are different personalities, "The same two basic issues appeared" in their cases. He writes:

"There was the issue of a conflict of interest. There was the issue of personal behavior."

Ives then quotes the official record of testimony to show that Oppenheimer lied to the military intelligence officer who was investigating in wartime some details of a Russian effort at espionage which had come to his attention at the atomic laboratory in Berkeley.

OPPENHEIMER ADMITTED he had lied and failed for several months to reveal to his government that he had lied. The Personnel Security Board of the AEC found Oppenheimer "loyal" but a security risk.

"But a closer look at the two cases," writes Ives, "shows up a disquieting detail. The decision against Dr. Oppenheimer detonated a perfect frenzy of disapprobation from a very wide segment of the liberal community. But many of the same people who wanted Dr. Oppenheimer retained demanded that Talbott be dismissed.

"In other words, a wide selection of influential personages were willing to brush aside in Dr. Oppenheimer's behalf the very serious ethical question arising out of an attempted Russian espionage coup against out atomic establishment. But these same people wanted Talbott punished for using public letterheads and public office in behalf of his private business.

"WHAT WE CONFRONT here is one more dismaying evidence of the ethical relativism, the double standard, the doctrinaire caste partisanship, the lack of fairness and even candor which infect much leftish discussion. Says Diana Trilling in a 'partisan review' comment on the Oppenheimer case:

"'I could wish to point out the large part which evasion of truth has played in the discrediting of liberalism as a vital, cultural and political force in the modern world —and specifically the evasion of truth about communism. . .'

"Perhaps in these days of declining hysteria on the right and left, a comparison of the Talbott and Oppenheimer cases—not of Talbott and Oppenheimer—will clarify the prospect."

Performing Clams

By Frank Tripp

You can find people yet who don't believe there are such things as trained fleas and a flea circus. So perhaps this yarn about a troupe of performing clams hasn't much chance of acceptance farther inland than Sandy Hook.

Nevertheless I once had a troupe of performing clams. It wasn't something you could cart about the country as a flea circus is transported, because trick clams are very temperamental creatures.

Though clams are mollusks, I imagine you'll let me call them temperamental creatures; at least concede that much, and keep an open mind while I tell you a strange story about ordinary chowder clams.

When my children were young I spent much time on the beach with them, along the Jersey Coast. I had more fun than they did.

One day, right at the water's edge, where tiny ripples of a pond-calm ocean rolled lazily in and out over the fine, soft sand, leaving it barely damp one moment, and under an inch of salt water the next, I came upon my performing clams.

THERE WERE six of them, all lowly Quahogs, of the size and number to make a likely serving, either with or without cocktail sauce. That was my first thought about them. Then I noticed something I never knew about round, hard clams—something the encyclopedias attribute only to soft, mud clams.

They were moving and more or less in unison. I always thought hard clams just got kicked about by the waves. In fact it never occurred to me that there could be any place that a clam would care to go—but there is.

After they had got halfway there I yanked them back on the beach and called the kids. Soon there was a crowd of youngsters about and I was giving a lecture on clams—performing clams, disappearing clams.

I found that I could control the activity of the clams according to where I placed them with respect to the ebb and flow of the water. Through this secret I could command certain clams to roll up on edge and they would. Others, placed only a few inches away, I could command to lie still and to the amazement of the children the orders were obeyed.

Then, while the kids played with four of the clams I placed a child's beach pail over the other two, did a bit of magician's hocus-pocus and had a boy sit on the pail. In a few minutes I asked him to give me the two clams. He lifted the pail and said, with astonishment, "Mister, they're gone"! Indeed they were gone—but not far; just under the sand.

YOU CAN'T find performing clams on any beach nor on any day. Everything has to be just right—including your inclination to play with clams. But I found some several times thereafter.

If the damp sand and the lap of lazy ripples is just right, a beach-bound hard clam will behave like a soft clam; open its shell about an inch and thrust out its tongue.

Its tongue is what many think is the best part of the clam; that solid, muscle part. It protrudes some distance, bores into the sand and slowly the clam will rise until it stands upright, with its hinge upward, its open jaws downward and its tongue in the sand.

Then slowly it sucks its way into the damp, soft sand and disappears. Move it a foot from the right spot and it will lie like a stone until the tide or waves take it back to sea.

That's all I know about clams; 'cept that they're mighty good eatin'.

The Ad Man and Kings

To America's Advertising Men:

Led by top agency people, you have combined to aid the fight on kid delinquency. The campaign can be terrific. If advertising experts can sell a cake mix, a hair-do, a beer, a cigaret and a washing powder they can market a sense of juvenile responsibility and a right outlook on life. It can be done by newspapers, magazines and the airwaves.

Young and old go for slogans and what could be more in the groove than "Reach for a Future Instead of a Past!" . . . "Stop, Look and Be Sensible!" . . . "Boys Will Be Boys, but Punks will Never Be Men." . . . "Columbus Discovered America, Pioneers Built it; Youth Has Only to Appreciate It," etc., etc?

MAKE YOUR ADVERTISING theme the fact that in an age of opportunity only a dimwit ruins his own big chance, that crime never pays off and that the world's biggest and most stirring construction job is character building.

If we were running the campaign we would start off with an advertisement suitably illustrated with the two species and saying to the kids of the country " 'Wanna Be a Man or a Mouse? Is No Longer the Issue; Today's Question Is Do You Wanna Be a Man or a Rat?"

We would use such extra slogans as "Filter That Wrong Impulse," "Take Our Thirty-Day Square Shooter Test," "Try High Level Behavior: It Satisfies." "Don't Let There Be an Alcatraz in Your Future" and "Don't Think the Psychiatrist Can Fix Everything. He Too Can Be Stupid," "The Essential Ingredient; Character." "When Better Americans Are Built Character will Build Them."

EVERY CAMPAIGN needs a light touch, maybe with jingles, and you could use something along this line:

You don't need to make a university
To know your conduct's getting worse and

THOUSANDS OF JUVENILE baddies blame it on underprivilege and general adversity, so how about some advertisements featuring the pictures of such Americans as Abe Lincoln, Booker T. Washington, Dr. Jonas Salk, Tom Edison, and others of all faiths and creeds, who made it the hard way?

Since youth is absorbed by colorful entertainment-world figures, let's have pictures of outstanding song writers, playwrights, performers, directors, etc., who had it plenty tough as kids but laughed off every impulse, if any, to take the wrong slant on life and make with the cops, the courts and the probation officers. Why not a photo of a governor, a president or a scientist, taken in boyhood in a slums alley or on a crowded tenement fire escape, with the caption "SO YOU THINK YOU'RE UNDERPRIVILEGED!"?

HELP YOURSELF to some more themes. . . "There's No Such Thing as a Happy Punk." . . . "America Is What a Kid Makes It." . . . "Why Knock Off Your Own Future?" . . . "The Statue of Liberty Gave You Plenty; You Owe It More."

We're not joking. America is not being sold on the good life. It is being sold on the things you get out of iceboxes, soap factories, breweries, soup plants, cosmetic jars and tonics to grow hair on a bald head. But not on the things that grow character on a crew haircut.

And on TV let's hear a commercial "Yes, if you want to find happiness in life, go now to the nearest mirror and see if your sense of responsibility is on straight. A bright future is everything. Accept no substitute."

Theater Attractions

Following is a summary of the motion pictures that will be presented at theaters in Marion next week.

—Ohio—

"The Man From Laramie," starring James Stewart in Cinemascope and technicolor, and "Bring Your Smile Along," also in technicolor, make up the double feature billing currently through Wednesday at the Ohio Theater. Saturday night, there will be a sneak preview in addition.

Co-starred with Stewart in the former are Arthur Kennedy, Donald Crisp, Cathy O'Donnell, Alex Nicol and Aline MacMahon. It tells the story of a man who has trekked a thousand weary miles, from Laramie to the wasteland of New Mexico, to find and kill the man who sold Apaches the repating rifles that resulted in a massacre and death of his brother. Although warned off many times by a gang of range riders, he remains on the range in order to find and kill his man.

"Bring Your Smile Along" stars Frankie Laine, Keefe Brasselle and Constance Towers. It traces the fortunes of a pair of entertainers who rocket from burlesque to Broadway with the assistance of a charming blonde high school teacher who would rather write lyrics.

Starting Thursday will be another double feature, "How To Be Very, Very Popular," a romantic comedy with a dash of rhythm, and "New York Confidential," a crime story.

"How To Be Very, Very Popular," in Cinemascope and color, stars Betty Grable, Sheree North, Bob Cummings, Charles Coburn and Tommy Noonan. The two girls are seen as a pair of burlesque dancers who inadvertently witness a murder and then take it on the lam when the murderer turns his attention to them. They hole up in a staid old college town, choosing about the least likely place that a burlesque pair would hide out. Through their escapades, they break many of the old traditions of the college

"New York Confidential" stars Broderick Crawford, Richard Conte, Marilyn Maxwell, J. Carroll Naish and Anne Bancroft and tells the inside story of the top men of the international crime ring and how the organization operates. Broderick Crawford portrays the role of Lupo, boss of the ring, while Richard Conte is seen as Nick, the professional killer.

—Palace—

"Not As A Stranger," screen adaptation of one of the best-selling novels of all time, opens Sunday at the Palace Theater. It will play for an entire week.

The story of Morton Thompson's book deals with the loves, aspirations, heartaches and the triumphs of a doctor. Stars of the picture are Olivia de Havilland, Robert Mitchum, Frank Sinatra, Gloria Grahame, Broderick Crawford and Charles Bickford.

Lucas Marsh, the dedicated doctor here of "Not As A Stranger" is played by Robert Mitchum, while the role of Kristina Hedvigson, the efficient but poignant operating room nurse who is first Lucas' girl friend and then his self-sacrificing wife is portrayed by Olivia de Havilland.

The young medical student, Lucas Marsh, idealized the ambition he has set for himself, almost to the exclusion of everything else. In his desire to be a doctor, he slaves long hours in study and watches skilled surgeons in the operating room. His idealism makes him hyper-critical to the point tactlessness and he lashes out in criticism of those around him, including his friends and professional doctors.

With his wife, he moves to a small town where he becomes the assistant to the town doctor. His experiences there include a typhoid emergency and the serious illness of the town's doctor.

—North Drive-In—

"Strange Lady in Town," a western drama of a red-haired lady in old Santa Fe, will be shown Sunday through Tuesday at the North Drive-In Theater. In Cinemascope and color, it stars Greer Garson, Dana Andrews, Cameron Mitchell and Lois Smith.

Greer Garson portrays a Boston woman who comes to Santa Fe to join her brother, played by Cameron Mitchell, and becomes a topic of excitement in the town because of her flaming hair and her personal feud with Dana Andrews. The latter is seen as Rork O'Brien, who had things very much his own way in Santa Fe until the strange lady arrived.

A first-run attraction starting Wednesday will be "Hell's Island," a tropic adventure in Vistavision and technicolor. Starred are John Payne and Mary Murphy.

"Hell's Island" is the story of an ex-D.A. down on his luck, who takes on the job of finding a stolen ruby and finds the job more complicated and dangerous than anything he has faced before. The deadliest complication is also the most alluring. She is Mary Murphy, beautiful redhead who had jilted him and ruined his law career and now turns up involved in the jewel theft. She fights him for the ruby at every turn.

—South Drive-In—

"Athena," a musical in color starring Jane Powell, Edmund Purdom, Debbie Reynolds, Vic Damone and Louis Calhern, will be the attraction Sunday and Monday at the South Drive-In Theater.

The story involves a double romance plot and tells of a zany family of health addicts and worshipers at the shrines of numerology and astrology, whose daughters place their faith in the stars in order to get the husbands of their dreams.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday is "The Bigamist," co-starring Joan Fontaine, Ida Lupino, Edmond O'Brien and Edmund Gwenn.

It is the drama of a man trapped by his devotion to two women. Edmond O'Brien portrays the title role, Joan Fontaine and Ida Lupino are the women who suddenly become aware of the other's presence, while Edmund Gwenn is cast as an investigator for an adoption agency who delves into the lives of a couple who seek to adopt a child and discovers the prospective father keeping an amazing secret from society.

Climax of the story is in the courtroom as the testimony of the wives and other important witness seals the case against the man married to two women simultaneously and the judge renders his verdict.

The attraction Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "The Yellow Tomahawk," starring Rory Calhoun and Peggie Castle.

The story concerns itself with the breaking of a peace-pact between certain of the Cheyennes through treachery on both sides. Rory Calhoun, Indian scout, keeps a hilltop rendezvous with a young Cheyenne, Fire Chief, and learns of a plan of the Cheyennes to resume war against the whites because of the slaughter of members of their tribe by the Major in command of U. S. Cavalry forces.

In addition to the Saturday night showing of "The Yellow Tomahawk," there will be four other features in a "dusk to dawn" show.

—State—

Two technicolor films, "Santa Fe Passage" and "Return To Paradise," are billed for showing Sunday and Monday at the State Theater. The former stars John Payne and Rod Cameron and heading the cast in the latter is Gary Cooper.

"On the Waterfront," Academy Award winning picture which stars Marlon Brando, will be the main attraction of a double feature Tuesday and Wednesday. Completing the billing will be "Rookies Bump" with Robert Marriot.

Randolph Scott is the star of the technicolor film, "The Bounty Hunter," which will be shown Thursday and Friday along with "The Last Time I Saw Paris," also in technicolor and starring Elizabeth Taylor and Van Johnson.

Saturday only, the attractions will be "High Society" starring the Bowery Boys and "Target" with Tim Holt.

Tea Drinkers Not Thirsty—Hungry For Union Victory

CLEVELAND (AP)—A union official, who spent 82 minutes drinking three glasses of iced tea in a Dorsel's Restaurant—and refused to leave when the manager ordered him out—was found guilty of trespassing yesterday.

Michael P. Rini, 44, business agent of AFL Teamsters Union Local 400, was given a suspended sentence of a $50 fine and 30 days in jail by Municipal Judge David C. Meck.

Dorsel's four restaurants on Cleveland's East Side have been picketed since May 19 by the AFL Joint Culinary Board, who are trying to organize restaurant employees.

Judge Meck said testimony showed 19 of the 21 stools at the counter were occupied by iced tea drinkers. He said it was clear there was a scheme to occupy the seats to prevent others customers from doing so.

In those circumstances, the manager was justified in ordering Rini to leave, even though he was making no disturbance, the judge said.

The judge disqualified himself from hearing another charge against Rini—that he didn't pay his 30 cent check. He sent it to another judge for trial on Aug. 26.

...even as he reached out for her, Al's words came back to him "This isn't the kind of a dame you marry!"

Marionites Use Parks To Keep Trim

AGE IS NO BARRIER to an active life, according to Carl H. Drake (right) of 359 Glad St. Although 66 years old, Drake still continues at his job with the Erie Railroad and is an active volleyball player. Here he prepares to start a game with his granddaughter Cheryl Drake, 4, (left) and his daughter Lois, 15, (center). Drake spends much of his spare time keeping in physical trim with such sports as volleyball. The Drakes are among the many Marionites making use of the Marion City parks this season. The park program will close after next week.

Coupon Purchases of Liquor Declared Illegal by Ohio Court

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—The coupon-book idea of purchasing liquor in clubs which do not have state liquor permits was held illegal today by Common Pleas Judge Earl D. Parker of Pike County.

The judge padlocked the Elms Club at Piketon in a decision in which he criticized the Ohio Liquor Control Act, its enforcement, and permit holders who violate the law. He termed the liquor setup "cock-eyed and wrong."

Club Owners Defendants

Defendants in the case were Lowell Licht and his sister, Miss Ruth Licht of Portsmouth, operators of the club. But Judge Parker said he was sorry the law did not provide for more permit holders in Pike County., and he lambasted a group of permit holders who he said filed the padlock petitions.

The court's decision, attorneys said, is the first ever given in the state on the "coupon" idea of buying liquor, a method said to be used in a number of spots in the state as a means of circumventing the liquor laws.

Under this system, a member of a club not having a liquor license, goes to a club official and asks him to buy a bottle of liquor Then he, as a member, pays the club for a coupon book and uses these coupons to buy drinks.

Could Use Power of Attorney

The court said the only way a member of a club like the Elms could purchase liquor by the coupon book method would be through power of attorney. The judge said:

"I believe a club member can have the manager, through power of attorney, buy him a bottle of liquor at the state liquor store The bottle must be displayed at the club bar with the owner's name on the bottle in full view of those in the bar

"The owner of the bottle may have the bartender pour him a drink from the bottle, or he may pour it himself. The bartender can make a charge for set-ups and he can charge for obtaining the bottle for the customer, but he cannot sell the customer's liquor for profit.

"A club cannot buy liquor and sell it to members who buy coupon books"
